Your 2017-2018 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review. The law requires that before finalizing your financial aid application, you must verify your High School Completion Status. To verify this information, you must complete this form and forward it to the University of Rhode Island. Please complete this form carefully as missing or incomplete information will delay URI from finalizing your financial aid application. You must complete and sign this worksheet, attach any required documents, and submit all information to the address provided on the right.

Provide one of the following documents that indicate the student’s high school completion status when the student will begin college in 2017–2018. Attach this form to your documentation.

- [ ] A copy of the student’s high school diploma.
- [ ] A copy of the student’s final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- [ ] A copy of the student’s General Educational Development (GED) certificate, an official GED transcript that indicates the student passed the exam, or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate.
- [ ] An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
- [ ] If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.

  If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
- [ ] For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the "secondary school leaving certificate" or other similar document.

If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact Enrollment Services.

Each person signing below certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct.
