Article XIII

GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

13.1 All crew members shall be eligible to participate in the State Group Life Insurance Program as established by 36-12-6 of the General Laws of Rhode Island.
Article XIV
RETIREEMENT

DEFINED CONTRIBUTION PLAN 403(b)

14.1 Employees who work twenty (20) or more hours per week and are appointed for six (6) months or more are required to participate in the Board’s defined contribution retirement program after having completed two (2) years of service and having reached the age of thirty (30). Employees who are under age thirty (30) and have completed two (2) years of service may join on a voluntary basis.

14.2 The two (2) year waiting period will be waived for new employees transferring from other institutions who already own a retirement annuity, and for new employees who have at least five (5) years of experience in the field for which they have been hired.

14.3 Employees who are members of the State Employees' Retirement System may elect to remain in that system or elect membership in the Board’s defined contribution retirement programs when eligible.

Article XV
DISABILITY INSURANCE

15.1 All full-time crew members who are members of the defined contribution plans or who will be eligible for membership in the future and who have one (1) year of service at the University are covered by disability insurance.

15.2 Also covered are full-time employees with one (1) year of service at the University and who have less than five (5) years of service in ERS.

Article XVI
VACATION

16.1 The annual vacation for full-time crew members will be 22 days per year. Crew members with twenty (20) years of service will receive an additional five (5) days of vacation in accordance with RIGL 36-6-18.

16.2 A crew member must work six (6) months before any vacation time can be discharged. If a person is hired as a relief crew and becomes permanent then vacation and sick leave will be accrued retroactively to the date of hire as a relief crew member.

16.3 Crew members accumulate additional days (sea leave) at the rate of one vacation day for five days at sea or operating away from home. Sea leave can be discharged at any time after hire with the permission of the Marine Superintendent.
16.4 A crew member may carry-over fifty (50) days of accumulated vacation and "sea leave" time into the next calendar year (up to a maximum accrual of 100 days). Any days exceeding 100 at the end of the calendar year will be lost.

16.5 The assignment of vacation time is at the discretion of the Marine Superintendent who must exercise fairness. The vacation time must be approved in advance and taken only when such absence will not impair the efficiency of the operation of the vessel. However, in no case will vacation time be denied any employee so that vacation carried over will be lost, except in an emergency. The inability to provide satisfactory relief is not a justifiable excuse for denying an employee a vacation except in an emergency. Vacation time must be requested at least two weeks in advance when the ship is operating locally and at least one month in advance when the ship is foreign. In general no more than one member of any ship department (i.e. deck, engine, galley, etc.) can be on vacation at the same time without the express permission of the Marine Superintendent.

16.6 Vacation time will be scheduled, if possible, so that transportation is limited to one way; that is he/she is either to get off the ship at Narragansett or rejoin the ship in Narragansett. Overtime is not authorized for vacation travel to and from the ship.

Article XVII

17.3 When the total accumulation of sick leave shall amount to 1000 hours (125) days, no further credit shall accrue until the total shall have been reduced to less than the maximum. When the service of an employee shall be terminated by retirement (voluntary or involuntary) or death, such employee or his estate shall be entitled to receive full pay for each hour of accrued sick leave to his credit as of the date of termination according to the following formula: Full pay for 50% of all accrued sick leave over 468 hours up to and including 720 hours and full pay for 75% of all sick leave accrued over 720 hours up to and including 1000 hours.

17.4 The University may require a physician’s certificate or other satisfactory evidence in support of any request for sick leave with pay, but must require a certificate or other satisfactory evidence for each sick leave with pay covering an absence of more than three (3) consecutive working days.

Crew members shall not be required to give a reason as a condition of utilizing this personal leave, but prior approval must be obtained from the marine superintendent to assure that the absence does not interfere with the proper conduct of the office. Personal leave credits cannot be carried over from calendar year to calendar year.

Such leave of absence shall be deemed to have expired six (6) months after the date of discharge from or authorized separation from active duty as a member of the armed forces. Re-enlistment or other continued service in the armed forces resulting from choice by the employee shall automatically serve to cancel said leave.

22.2 For the first sixty (60) days of the leave the employee shall receive the difference between their University base salary and their military base salary. In no case shall the employee receive more than they would have received had the employee not been absent from their position. No employee shall be allowed to receive pay more than once under this article for military leave for training purposes in a three (3) year period.

22.3 At the conclusion of the leave of absence the employee shall be returned to his position, subject, however to any law or rule which may hereinafter be enacted affecting such right of return or defining the conditions under which such returns may be made.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

Leave Policy for Extended Cruises

If the vessel is engaged in a cruise continuously outside the continental U.S. in excess of four (4) months, crew members are entitled to take their accrued vacation time after three (3) months into the cruise. Vacation requests must be made thirty (30) days in advance and be submitted to the vessel’s Master on the standard leave for. Round trip tickets will be provided from the out port to Providence and return. Tickets to other locations can be arranged, however, any cost of that ticket in excess of a ticket to Providence must be borne by the crew member.

A second option would be one way vacation requests. If adequate vacation time has not been accrued to cover the period until the ship returns to the continental U.S., leave without pay will be considered. Requests for leave without pay should be submitted in writing.

A third option of a bonus in lieu of vacation is also available. The bonus would be equal to a one-way fare to the most distant port reached after three months into the cruise. Standard payroll deductions would be taken from this bonus. Normal vacation time would continue to accrue. The marine superintendent has the option of denying leave if more than one person from any department wants time off at the same time.
