DigitalCommons@URI: Periodical Requirements & Request Form

If you wish to publish a periodical through DigitalCommons@URI, please read through the following requirements and return the request form to: Julia Lovett, Digital Initiatives Librarian, University Libraries, jalovett@uri.edu. The Digital Initiatives Librarian, in consultation with the library’s Committee on Digital Initiatives, will review all requests and respond within 14 business days.

Requirements:

The following requirements are designed to ensure the quality of periodical publications such as magazines, journals, and newsletters on the DigitalCommons@URI platform.

- To qualify as a periodical, the publication must contain a mix of articles, editorials, reviews, columns, short stories, poems, or other short works written by more than one contributor, and be issued generally at regular stated intervals. Content is controlled by an editor or editorial board. Magazines, journals, and newsletters are all periodicals. (See http://www.abc-clio.com/ODLIS/odlis_P.aspx?#periodical)
- All requests to start a periodical must be accompanied by a completed Request Form.
- Periodicals should be considered ongoing in nature.
- Scholarly journals must have an editorial board.
- Scholarly Open Access journals must adhere to the OASPA Code of Conduct: http://oaspa.org/membership/code-of-conduct/
- Representatives from the Libraries and the periodical must sign a Memorandum of Understanding.
