ADMISSION TO TEACHER EDUCATION (See Music Education Checklist)

Students majoring in music education are required to apply for admission to the URI School of Education teacher education program. Application deadlines are February 1 in spring semesters. In order to complete the program of study within four years, this application must be made during the second semester of the sophomore year. Students should consult the URI School of Education (SOE) webpage for information regarding requirements and the application process at https://www.uri.edu/hss/education.htm. Application forms are available on the SOE website by following the link for “Prospective Applicants.” Applications are submitted first to the Office of Teacher Education (701 Chafee, 401-874-5930). After screening by the Office of Teacher Education, students may schedule interviews and portfolio assessments with the music education screening committee through the Coordinator of Music Education. Students receive a letter from the Office of Teacher Education notifying them of admission status upon completion of the interview and portfolio assessment. Questions regarding the undergraduate teacher education program should be addressed to the Coordinator of Music Education.

Standards of admission to teacher education are determined by the URI Council for Teacher Education and the Department of Music. Applicants will be reviewed by a Department of Music screening committee according to criteria that appear below. The screening committee shall be comprised of faculty who teach music methods courses or are involved with supervision of music education students and may include the Coordinator of Music Education and/or Chairperson of the Department of Music. Admission to teacher education will be based on the following criteria:

1. Completed SOE application form available at www.uri.edu/hss/education a.) Recommendations from faculty and others who have knowledge of the candidate’s experience or interest in working in education.

Applicants who fail to gain admission should seek counsel from the Coordinator of Music Education and/or their academic advisor. Students may reapply for admission to a teacher education program but should understand that this may delay their anticipated graduation date.

STUDENT TEACHING

Student teaching is the culminating event in undergraduate teacher training. Music education majors typically enroll in student teaching (EDC 484) and Seminar in Student Teaching (EDC 485) during their last semester at URI. Each student must meet with the Coordinator of Music Education, a year prior to student teaching in order to discuss his or her plans and submit the necessary application form. Application deadlines are October 1 for next fall student teaching and February 1 for next spring student teaching. The application form is available on the music department website and from the Coordinator of Music Education. Additional forms and documentation is required to gain clearance for student teaching, once the initial application has been accepted. See Student Teaching Checklist for more information.

All levels of the piano proficiency examination and all courses required in the Bachelor of Music in Music Education Program, with the exception of MUS 480, Graduation Portfolio in Music must be completed before Supervised Student Teaching (EDC 484) and Seminar in Student Teaching (EDC 485) are permitted. Prospective student teachers must pass the PRAXIS II: Principles of Learning and Teaching test for either Grades K-6 with a passing score of 160, or Grades 7-12 with a passing score of 157. Prospective student teachers must also pass the PRAXIS II: Music Content Knowledge Test (passing score 160). Confirmation of passing both the Principles of Learning and Teaching and Music Content Knowledge tests must be delivered to Coordinator of Music Education to gain clearance to student teach.
Information concerning the Praxis II: PLT test can be found at http://www.ets.org/praxis/. Questions concerning tests may also be directed to the Coordinator of Music Education or the Office of Teacher Education.

Students are advised not to take on outside work during the semester they student teach. Student teachers are placed in elementary and secondary music teaching settings with experienced cooperating teachers in public schools in Rhode Island. This may occur at two separate schools or concurrently if possible.
