FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS – FALL 2017

eCampus username & password: URI's online system where students are able to, among other tasks, register for classes; check the status of their schedules, bills, grades, financial aid applications; and perform degree audits is called eCampus. If you have not created a username and password for eCampus, you will want to do so. From uri.edu/ecampus, select the first option - “First Time Users Register Here” and follow the prompts.

URI ID card: You can visit the Campus ID & Dining Office in Memorial Union 216 to have your official URI ID card made. When you do so, you need to have registered for at least one class and present photo ID to verify your birthday.

EmergencyALERT notifications: In the event of an on-campus emergency or severe weather that would cause cancellation of classes, URI uses the EmergencyALERT program to simultaneously & quickly contact the entire campus community via voicemail, text and email. To register:

1. Log onto uri.edu/ecampus
2. Select the URI Emergency Alert System choice from the left-hand menu, and follow the related links.

URI email address: URI student email is powered by Google's Gmail at my.uri.edu. Your my.URI.edu password on Google is different from all others, including those for e-Campus, Sakai, and Wireless. Visit http://my.uri.edu/ to learn more about setting up your email. If you have any trouble with your email account, you can contact the HELP Desk at (401) 874-HELP.
