Vibrant colors and incredible floral masterpieces are sure to impress. We’ll also have the privilege of observing some of China’s most prized relics – the Terracotta Warriors. Day 1: Today, we journey to the “Birthplace of America,” Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Home to everything from the historic Liberty Bell and Independence Hall to the Rocky Statue. It’s also a proud city of firsts: the nation’s first hospital, zoo, library, stock exchange, piano and cheesesteak were launched here (amongst myriad other institutions & inventions). Our comfortable accommodations will be at the Marriott’s Courtyard Philadelphia City Avenue. Dinner is included this evening. Choice of Grilled Salmon or Chicken Marsala. (D)

Day 2: After breakfast this morning, we’ll travel to the incredible One Liberty Observation Deck – a new, 360° experience that’s 57 stories above street-level. Enjoy unobstructed views of the city and suburbs from this fully enclosed observatory. Our next stop, the Philadelphia Flower Show, is the country’s “largest and longest running horticultural event” and will feature the Wonders of Water throughout its many exhibits. Fantastic fountains, mysteries of the plant realm and a flourishing hydroponic wall are just a small part of what to expect during a day full of flora and fun! You’ll marvel at novel garden exhibitions and astonishing floral arrangements, new plant varieties and a massive marketplace too – there will certainly be much to see and do during this premier award-winning showcase. This evening, we’ll savor an included dinner. (B, D)

Day 3: Prepare to witness one of the world’s greatest archaeological discoveries right here in the United States. A portion of China’s over 8,000 Terracotta Warriors will be on full display during their only engagement on the east-coast at the Franklin Institute. These enigmatic statues, unearthed in 1974, “protected” the tomb of the country’s first emperor. We’ll have the rare opportunity to appreciate these astounding pieces of art before departing toward home. (B)
