• DROP-OFF: All artwork must be dropped off at a no-contact drop bin by March 1st. It will be outside the URI 4-H Office located at East Farm, Building 50. The Google address is 1 E Farm Rd, Kingston, RI 02881. The arrow on the map below is in front of Building 50. 4-H members can also drop off at their 4-H Leaders house by February 25th.

• SETUP: This year the 4-H Staff will bring and setup all the artwork at the mall and have it ready for you and the public to view the exhibit by Friday at 2pm.

• LABEL: The following needs to be attached to the back of every piece of art: Youth first name, age, unique title of piece (do not name 2 photos the same thing). Please make sure this information matches the pre-registration so that we can match you up. Do not attach any of this information to the front! We strive to keep youth information private as such we keep our registration records separate from what the public will see on display.

• DISPLAY: Matte or Frame 2D art. Art must be freestanding, or you must supply an easel that will safely support it. No additional decorations can be used with the art pieces or stands.

• PICK UP: Pickup Art from 3-4pm on Sunday the 6th at the Warwick Mall or the following week by appointment at URI’s East Farm, email Kristy Horan kston@uri.edu.

• JUDGING & PRIZES: Judging will take place ahead of time at URI, then the art and awards will be transported to the mall by the URI staff. You, your family and friends will be able to see your art and awards on display at the Mall Friday night at 3pm-Sunday at 3pm. Youth age 5-7 will be awarded green participation awards. Blue, Red and White awards will be given to each work. Best of Show rosettes will also be awarded at the judge’s discretion. By entering the artwork in this fair, you agree to let the RI 4-H Club Foundation and the URI 4-H Program use a reproduction of your artwork in promotion or fundraising efforts.
