

Rhode Island 4-H

2025 Highlights

377

Youth in Clubs

390

Youth in Groups

80

Educational hands on events.

1804

People attended these events. (duplications included)

“OMG I loved this!!! 4-H Aquaculture Day was so much fun! Honestly I wouldn't change a thing.” - 11 year old

“It was interesting to see the other clubs. It made me feel proud of the accomplishments I made.” -11 year old

“Amazing program. My daughter has not stopped talking about it! We did not know about this area and now we want to join the watershed watch. Please do this event again! Thank you!” - Mother of 10 year old

68 RI 4-H Youth submitted record books recording:

90% completed community service projects and public speaking.

56% achieved state medals with in-depth service, leadership and communication services.

University of Rhode Island, Cooperative Extension 4-H Program URI is an equal opportunity employer committed to the principles of affirmative action. If you need any accommodations or language services to participate email rhodeisland4h@gmail.com, 5 days prior to the program for free translation services.