Christine P. Dolan, M.Ed is an Education Specialist and team member in the Office of Strategic Initiatives at the URI Providence campus. She has managed the dual/concurrent enrollment program for URI since the state first introduced the Prepare RI Initiative starting in Fall 2015. The program today has grown to include 85 sections of courses scheduled per URI semester in RI high schools, taught by URI approved high school teachers and activating 1350 high school student records for enrollment.