William Tejada is an engineering teacher in the Mount Pleasant High School Pre-Engineering Academy. He is an industrial and systems engineer, who has experience working with bilingual students at the college and high school level in engineering both in the United States and the Dominican Republic. He also earned his teaching certificate through Rhode Island College and is a second-year coach/mentor for the Mount Pleasant High School Robotics Club.