

ABOUT THE SPANISH DEGREE:

Spanish is a global language that opens doors for students in Rhode Island, around the country, and around the globe. With 548 million native speakers worldwide, Spanish connects students to a diverse range of cultures, identities, and traditions. Our Spanish program is structured to facilitate students' timely completion of dual degrees, while developing in-depth knowledge about Hispanic cultures, literatures, and linguistics, as well as advanced skills in intercultural competence, critical thinking, collaborative problem-solving, and language proficiency. We also offer award-winning international programs.
