Student Guide to the AEC

If you have questions about any of the AEC's services, email us at aec@etal.uri.edu or call 401-874-2367.

---

Are you in need of tutoring for STEM & BUS classes?

STEM & BUS Tutoring

- Flexible content specific support.
  - The Library Drop-In Center
    - Great for quick questions and you can visit as much as you like.
    - Located in library LL4 and open Monday - Thursday from 1pm-7pm.
    - Use TracCloud to schedule.

---

Are you looking for help with academic skills?

Academic Skills Development

- Consistent content-specific support.
  - Small Group Tutoring
    - Great for in-depth knowledge and questions. Same tutor at the same time each week, allowing you to get to know your peers.
    - Located primarily in Roosevelt and your 50-minute appointment can be online or in person.
    - Use TracCloud to schedule.
  - Peer Academic Skills Consultations
    - Peer consultants help with planning, time management, and study strategies.
    - You can schedule 50 minute Academic Skills Consultations either in person or online through TracCloud.
  - Professional Academic Skills Consultation
    - Dr. David Hayes can help you with all areas of academic skills development including planning, time management, studying, motivation, procrastination, attention, test taking, and test anxiety.
    - You students can schedule 30 min, 1-1 consultations (in person or online) via starfish.

---

Are you looking for support with a writing assignment?

Undergraduate Writing Center

- Help with all aspects of academic skills development.
  - UCS 160 & 161
    - Assist in all stages of writing.
    - Feedback on later-stage drafts or follow-up after consultation.
  - In-Person & Online Consultations
    - Meet 1-on-1 with a peer writing consultant in Roosevelt 009 or online. You can bring any writing assignment, at any stage (even if you haven't started writing yet). We can also help with personal statements for applications.
    - Schedule 25- or 50-minute appointments on WCOnline via SSO in My Apps.
  - Written Feedback
    - If you've already met with a consultant 1-1 and you have a well-developed draft, you can submit your work for written feedback. A peer consultant will respond to your questions or concerns in writing.
    - Next-day feedback available Monday through Friday.

---

UCS 160: Success in Higher Education and UCS 161: Becoming a More Self Directed Learner are 1 credit courses that teach college-specific planning, work management, and study skills.

- UCS 160 is open to all undergraduates.
- UCS 161 has 160 as a prerequisite, or permission of instructor.

---

The Library Drop-In Center

- Great for quick questions and you can visit as much as you like.
- Located in library LL4 and open Monday - Thursday from 1pm-7pm.

---

Small Group Tutoring

- Great for in-depth knowledge and questions. Same tutor at the same time each week, allowing you to get to know your peers.
- Located primarily in Roosevelt and your 50-minute appointment can be online or in person.
- Use TracCloud to schedule.

---

Peer Academic Skills Consultations

- Peer consultants help with planning, time management, and study strategies.
- You can schedule 50 minute Academic Skills Consultations either in person or online through TracCloud.

---

Professional Academic Skills Consultation

- Dr. David Hayes can help you with all areas of academic skills development including planning, time management, studying, motivation, procrastination, attention, test taking, and test anxiety.
- You students can schedule 30 min, 1-1 consultations (in person or online) via starfish.

---

UCS 160: Success in Higher Education and UCS 161: Becoming a More Self Directed Learner are 1 credit courses that teach college-specific planning, work management, and study skills.

- UCS 160 is open to all undergraduates.
- UCS 161 has 160 as a prerequisite, or permission of instructor.

---

In-Person & Online Consultations

- Meet 1-on-1 with a peer writing consultant in Roosevelt 009 or online. You can bring any writing assignment, at any stage (even if you haven't started writing yet). We can also help with personal statements for applications.
- Schedule 25- or 50-minute appointments on WCOnline via SSO in My Apps.

---

Written Feedback

- If you've already met with a consultant 1-1 and you have a well-developed draft, you can submit your work for written feedback. A peer consultant will respond to your questions or concerns in writing.
- Next-day feedback available Monday through Friday.