

Misty Day

400 Broad St, Providence, RI | 407-939-7777 | misty.day@uri.edu

PROFILE

Knowledgeable of urban and community forestry with a passion for promoting and protecting the environment. Adaptable to new environments, well traveled, and experienced working with a diverse range of individuals.

EDUCATION

University of Rhode Island – Kingston, RI

Bachelor of Science, Natural Resource Science, Wildlife and Conservation Biology

Anticipated graduation: 05/20XX

COURSEWORK

- Completed: Woody and Herbaceous Plants; Basic Soil Science; Introduction to Fisheries & Wildlife; Chemical Principles I; General Biology; Introduction to Public Speaking
- In Progress: Introduction to Urban Studies: The Complexity of Metropolitan Life; Chemical Principles II; Identifying Forest Plants; Short Calculus
- Planned: Diseases of Forest and Shade Trees; Managing Recreational Lands; Geographic Information Systems; Urban Forest Management: Managing Greenspaces for People

TECHNICAL CLASS PROJECTS

Chemical Principles II

Unidentified White Compound (UWC) Project

- Designed and assembled laboratory setup with lab group utilizing various chemistry techniques and teamwork to confidently identify UWC from a list of over 20 possibilities
- Performed laboratory tasks in an accurate and precise manner to ensure that no trivial errors interfered with the validity of the conclusion

Introduction to Fisheries & Wildlife

Propose a Conservation Program Project

- Conceptualized a new conservation program in its entirety, from researching plausible plots to proposing restorations to the land to creating a follow up maintenance plan for the next 10 years
- Concisely communicated details of conservation program to class of 30 students

Identifying Forest Plants

Measuring an Urban Forest Project

- Modeled a 2-acre urban forest using measurement techniques mastered in class
- Provided a report on the status of the forest ecosystem, including flora and fauna

WORK EXPERIENCE

University Dining Services, Kingston, RI

Cashier

September 20XX - Present

- Greet and collect payment from all guests entering the dining hall
- Teamwork, ensuring all work is completed, and training new staff

SKILLS

- Laboratory: Titration, Distillation, Western blotting, Safety and cleaning procedures
- Language: Tagalog (native), English (fluent)
- Interpersonal: positive, clear communicator, and eager to learn

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Dedicated violin player, having performed for audiences up to 300
- Traveled to 4 continents and 30 different countries
- Hiked Appalachian Trail