Clinical Graduate Application Process:

Note. This application is for URI graduate students in Clinical Psychology and Marriage and Family Therapy. Students from William James College may also use this application for the practicum or internship positions. Other Non-URI graduate students seeking practicum placements should first consult with the Assistant Director and Director of Training, Michael Starkey, Ph.D. to determine eligibility for placement before completing this form.

- A. Submit the following application form, a resume, and a cover letter that addresses your reasons for applying to this position, including your goals for the year's experience. Highlight particularly relevant employment or training where you were involved in a counseling or therapeutic capacity, especially as it might relate to working at the URI Counseling Center.
- B. Include a copy of your graduate transcript(s) (unofficial transcripts are acceptable).
- C. Ask two or three referees to send their references to michaelstarkey@uri.edu or send a signed (digital or by hand) copy with your application. One referee should be your academic advisor/major professor unless this person is not familiar with your clinical work. All referees should be familiar with your work experience in a helping role.

Application deadline: January 9, 2024

Applications will be reviewed in the order they are received; review will continue until positions are filled. Rolling applications are accepted.

All requested materials should be sent to:

Michael Starkey, Ph.D. at
