

TO: Clinical Educators
FROM: Office of Clinical Practice and Partnership

Thank you for working with a teacher candidate from the University of Rhode Island! We appreciate your important contribution to the education of a future teacher.

To receive your clinical educator stipend, please complete and sign a W-9 form (verification of your social security number) and the information requested below so that we can process an invoice voucher for your stipend. To ensure timely payment, please return both these forms by email or mail by November 1st, 2024:

EMAIL: ote@etal.uri.edu

MAIL: Office of Clinical Practice and Partnerships
207 Chafee Building, Suite 217
Kingston, RI 02881

Please see the next page for a note about CE payment rates for 2024-2025. Because teacher preparation programs are implementing residency for the first time this year, please understand that these pay rates apply to this year only. Thank you for your understanding.

We will strive to ensure that your payment is received within 6 weeks of completing your clinical educator obligations. If you have any questions, please call the OCPP at: 401-874-5930. Thank you!

IMPORTANT: (Please do not cut form—thanks!)

Please complete this form and return with the signed W-9 form immediately to the address or email above.

Clinical Educator Pay Rates: 2024-2025 Residency, Student Teaching, Internship

In response to Rhode Island regulations that change the structure of traditional student teaching to a year-long residency, the URI College of Education (COEDU) is implementing a full pilot residency program in the academic year 2024-2025. Thank you for your support and patience while we adjust to the new and exciting residency structure!

While we anticipate the clinical educators pay structure to remain the same for future years, we thank you in advance for your understanding while we try to determine if that will be possible. Our goal is to recognize and honor the work that clinical educators do in a sustainable and manageable way. We thank you for your dedication to the field of education and to your teachers for their continued support and care for URI teacher candidates!
