Important information:

- A readmitting student is one previously admitted to a program of study at the University of Rhode Island and who has a break of at least one regular semester during the pursuit of an undergraduate degree. A break in continuous attendance, with or without a formal withdrawal, automatically terminates a student's active status and necessitates a readmission to continue toward a degree. A student with a previous URI undergraduate degree pursuing a second undergraduate degree at URI may also apply for readmission.
- Students who have earned more than 25 college-level credits and meet URI college entrance requirements should apply directly to the college housing their desired major. All others, apply to University College. Speak with an academic advisor regarding if you meet college entrance requirements.
- A student may seek readmission into a college and/or major different from which he or she formerly attended.
- Readmission deadlines vary by college. Applications must be submitted by academic colleges to Enrollment Services no later than August 15 for the fall semester, May 10 for the summer semester and December 31 for the spring semester.
- Students should submit to the readmitting college all official college transcripts for work done outside of URI since their departure from URI.
- Students should contact the college directly for readmission requirements or questions about their program of study.
- Readmission decisions are made in compliance with University Manual 8.25.10-8.25.18

Residency Information

The State of Rhode Island Board of Education sets the guidelines for determining whether or not you are a Rhode Island resident for tuition purposes. If you are coded as an out-of-state resident, but believe you qualify for in-state residency, you may petition the University Residence Officer in Enrollment Services. You will be asked to provide supporting documentation such as income tax returns, driver's license, and/or voter registration as part of your petition to establish Rhode Island residency.
