Rhody Life Skills

• Health & Wellness
  • Taylor Hooton Foundation (THF) - February 2019 - Our Football, Men's and Women's Soccer teams hear from the folks at THF on the dangers of supplements and steroids. Teams rotate each week so that that every student athlete receives the talk from Taylor Hooton Foundation before graduating.

• Mental Health Education - In collaboration with the Psychological Consultation Center (PCC), all teams attended 60 minute education sessions on topics of Depression, Anxiety and Sleep.

• Nutrition Education - Fall 2018 - In collaboration with Health Services Staff Nutritionist and Registered Dietitian, all teams attended various nutrition education sessions on topics such as meal prep and meal proportion sizes

• Sexual Assault Prevention Education - Fall 2018 - Through the URI Bystander Intervention program I-Stand, 100% of our student athletes receive annual presentations on topics that include consent, stalking and dating violence, and bystander intervention.

- Community Service:

  - Rhody Thon - March 2019 - ALL teams participated in fund raising pages or department fundraising through annual Penny Wars competition. Several teams volunteered the day of to sign autographs for the kids and their families visiting from Hasbro Children's Hospital.

  - Rhody Reads - April 2019 - Visited 5 local elementary schools during reading week to read their favorite kids book and emphasize the importance of education and reading to the children in our community.

  - RI Special Olympics - June 2018 & June 2019 - Each year, as RI Special Olympics visit our campus for their annual State Games, our student athletes volunteer at the Track & Field and Swimming events.
