ARTICLE XV
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

For this Agreement, the term "grievance" means any difference or dispute between the URI BOT and the Association or between the URI BOT and any employee with respect to the interpretation, application, or violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement. There shall be a grievance procedure as follows:

15.1 STEP 1 - Immediate Supervisor

A grievance shall be presented by the aggrieved to the employee's immediate supervisor within ten (10) working days after the employee knew or "should have known" of the act, event, and/or commencement of the condition which is the basis of the grievance. The supervisor shall attempt to settle the grievance within two (2) working days of its receipt.

15.2 STEP 2 - Presidential Level

If the grievance is not resolved in Step 1, it shall be submitted within three (3) working days of the immediate supervisor's decision to the President or the designee, who shall grant a hearing to the aggrieved within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the written grievance. A written decision shall be rendered within seven (7) working days of the conclusion of the hearing.

15.3 The time limits specified herein shall be regarded as maximums and every effort shall be made to expedite the processing of grievances provided, however, that the parties may by mutual agreement extend any time limitation specified herein.

15.4 A grievance shall automatically proceed to the next step of the grievance procedure if within the time limits specified herein a decision has not been rendered. It shall be the responsibility of the aggrieved to forward copies of grievance letters and responses thereto at each successive step of the grievance procedure.

15.5 Either party to this Agreement shall be permitted to call witnesses as part of the grievance procedure. The URI BOT, on request, will produce payroll and other records, as necessary. Employee witnesses who are state employees and grievants will receive their regular rate of pay for time spent processing grievances. Such time spent shall be subject to approval of the appropriate chief administrator, which should not be unreasonably withheld.

15.6 Further, in a group grievance only one (1) of the grievants and the appropriate employee representative shall be in pay status as spokesman for the group. Group grievances are defined as, and limited to, those grievances which cover more than one (1) employee within an employing unit and which involve like circumstances and facts for the grievance involved. The Association representative shall have the right to assist the aggrieved at any step of the grievance procedure. Nothing contained herein deprives an individual employee of the right to process the employee's grievance without Association representation. If such grievance is processed without Association representation, the facts of said grievance will be furnished to the Association's President and Vice President in writing.

15.7 It is also agreed that in all cases of dismissal or suspension the aggrieved may go immediately to Step 2 of the grievance procedure. It is further agreed that either party may submit a grievance to each other and proceed immediately to Step 2.

15.8 Decisions rendered shall be forwarded to the Association and to the aggrieved employee.

15.9 For purposes of this Article, the following definitions shall apply:

- a. "within a working day" shall mean prior to the end of the normal closing time on the working day following receipt of the grievance and shall be exclusive of weekends, vacations, and holidays.
- b. "aggrieved" shall mean either the employee and/or the Association.

15.10 Arbitration

- a. If a grievance is not settled under Article XV, such grievance shall, at the request of the Association or the URI BOT, be referred to the Labor Relations Connection in accordance with its rules then obtaining.
- b. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties except where the decision would require an enactment of legislation, in which case it shall be binding only if the legislation is enacted. The expense of such arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties.
- c. Only grievances arising out of the provisions of this contract relating to the application or interpretation or violation thereof may be submitted to arbitration.
- d. All submissions to arbitration must be made within fifteen (15) working days after the grievance procedure decision.

ARTICLE XVI APPEAL PROCESS

This waiver applies to the employee's spouse or domestic partner, as defined in RIGL §36-12-1, and dependent children, as defined below, who are pursuing courses in a regular study program for credit at the first baccalaureate level only, and who are in a program of study at one of the three institutions under the University of Rhode Island Board of Trustees' jurisdiction. In the event of an employee's death, the tuition waiver benefit shall be provided for those spouses or domestic partners, as defined in RIGL §36-12-1, and dependent children, as defined below, who have been accepted or are enrolled at the time of such death and who maintain continuous enrollment. For purposes of this policy, "dependent children" is intended to refer to a child, as defined in Internal Revenue Code §§ 117(d), 132(h), and 152(f)(1), of the eligible employee, for whom the eligible employee is entitled to claim and does claim a dependency deduction on their federal personal income tax return under Internal Revenue Code Section 152, including Section 152(e), or both of whose parents are deceased and who has not attained age 25.

An employee must provide evidence of marriage, domestic partnership, or dependency in order to receive a tuition waiver hereunder.

However, pursuant to RIGL §16-97.7 no eligible employee of the University of Rhode Island Board of Trustees, their spouse, domestic partner, or dependent children, shall receive a tuition waiver as a result of employment status with the University of Rhode Island Board of Trustees, without first consenting to the public disclosure of the existence and amount of the waiver. This applies to any waiver at the Community College of Rhode Island, Rhode Island College, and/or the University of Rhode Island.

To be eligible to receive a tuition waiver for any semester or session at an institution under the BOT's jurisdiction, an employee of the University of Rhode Island Board of Trustees must be a full-time employee on the date of the first day of classes for that semester or session.

If an employee is an otherwise "eligible employee" but is on leave without pay, neither the employee nor their spouse or domestic partner, as defined in R1GL §36-12-1, or dependent children are eligible for tuition waiver unless specifically approved by the institution.

Tuition waivers are not applicable to non-credit courses.

Reimbursement for travel expenses shall be made in accordance with travel regulations of the State of Rhode Island after approval has been granted by the appropriate Vice President or designee.

When the service of an employee shall be terminated by retirement (mandatory, voluntary or involuntary) or death, such employee or their estate shall be entitled to receive full pay for each hour of accrued sick leave to their credit as of the date of termination according to the following formula:

A thirty-five (35) hour a week employee, or a non-standard employee, shall be entitled to receive full pay for 50% of all accrued sick leave over 390 hours up to and including 630 hours and full pay for 75% of all accrued sick leave over 630 hours up to and including 875 hours.

20.3 The administration may require a physician's certificate or other satisfactory evidence for each sick leave with pay covering an absence of more than five (5) working days.

20.4 Whenever an employee shall be absent from the duties and receiving compensation as provided in the Workers' Compensation Laws, they shall be granted their sick leave in accordance with the rules applicable thereto, in an amount not to exceed their regular compensation. Annual leave credits may be applied in the same manner.

When such absence shall not be covered by sick leave or annual leave, it shall be deemed to be leave without pay.

20.5 In the event a member of the bargaining unit is recalled from layoff within one year of the effective date of layoff, their sick leave balance as of the date of said layoff shall be reinstated.

20.6 Parental Leave

- a. PSA members with one or more years of services shall be granted six (6) weeks of paid parental leave at the birth of a child or the placement of an adopted child under the age of twelve (12) years. PSA members should provide at least one month's notice prior to the start of the leave, whenever possible.

Such sick leave credits shall be available and sick leave granted upon written recommendation by the administration to the Assistant Vice President for Human Resource Administration that it has been determined by blood tests or other approved method and supported by a statement from a qualified physician that the health of the employee required such a sick leave to permit recuperation from exposure to such occupational hazards.
- b. Employees working a thirty-five (35) hour work week will be permitted to borrow seventy (70) hours of sick leave against future accumulation in the next fiscal year. Employees working a forty (40) hour week will be permitted to borrow eighty (80) hours of sick leave against future accumulation in the next fiscal year. Denial of this right must be substantiated by credible evidence or prior abuse of sick leave by the employee making said request.
- c. The Administration and the Union shall establish a Sick Leave Bank Committee, consisting of two members appointed by the PSA and two members appointed by the Administration. Each member of the bargaining unit may contribute one day per year of accumulated sick days to the Sick Leave Bank. To be eligible to receive sick days from the sick leave bank, a member must have exhausted all accumulated leave (sick, vacation, personal, compensatory time), must present medical documentation of a catastrophic illness or injury that is not work-related, and must have borrowed two weeks of sick leave in accordance with Article 20.7.b of the collective bargaining agreement. A member meeting this criterion may request a specific number of days from the Sick Leave Bank Committee based upon financial hardship and health prognosis. The Sick Leave Bank Committee shall decide the exact number of days a member may receive from the Sick Leave Bank up to a maximum of six months or approval of disability. Decision of the Sick Leave Bank Committee shall be final and not subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of the contract. URI HR reserves the right to ask for documentation. Days needed beyond four (4) days may be taken from sick, personal, or vacation leave.

20.9 Special Time Off

- a. Whenever it appears desirable, in the best interest of the URI BOT and its employees, to allow collective absence from duty, the executive officer may excuse employees at a stated time, providing that enough employees remain on duty to maintain contact with the public and carry-on crucial work.
- b. Employees who are required to work when other employees are so excused shall be paid their regular rate of pay and in addition shall be granted, at the discretion of the President, either compensatory time off or cash payment for this service at the rate of one-and-one-half (1.5) times for each hour worked.

Such leave of absence shall be deemed to have expired six (6) months after the date of discharge from or authorized separation from active duty as a member of the armed forces. Re-enlistment or other continued service in the armed forces resulting from choice by the employee shall automatically serve to cancel said leave.

For the first sixty (60) days of the leave the employee shall receive the difference between the employee's total salary and military pay. In no case shall the combined salary exceed the employee's regular total salary. At the conclusion of the leave of absence, the employee shall be returned to the position subject, however, to any law or rule which may hereinafter be enacted affecting such right of return or defining the conditions under which such returns may be made.

When applicable the employer must pay the employee's share of an optional plan if one is then currently in effect. If, in unusual circumstances a leave is extended for more than one (1) year, the employee must transfer to a direct payment plan, at the group rate, for the employee's health care, if the employee wishes to maintain coverage.

Family Leave Family leave is granted for reasons of serious illness of a family member. Serious illness is defined as disabling, physical or mental illness, injury, impairment or a condition that involves in-patient care in a hospital, nursing home, hospice or out-patient care requiring continuing treatment or supervision by a health care provider. The employee shall provide the University with written certification from the physician caring for the person who is the reason for the employee's leave and such certification shall state the probable duration of the employee's requested leave. During such time, the employee must discharge accrued time.

- c. At the expiration of such leaves, the employee shall be returned to the position from which the employee is on leave at the same step of the then current range for that class of position.
- d. For positions which are supported by federal or other non-state funds, when said leave expires, the employee shall be returned to the position from which the employee is on leave or any other similar position at the same step of the then current range for that class of position(s) for which the employee is qualified if said position exists.

In either case, there is the understanding that the employee will return to assigned duties upon the termination of the leave for a period equivalent to one (1) year for each half year of leave, unless by mutual agreement between the employee and the President, it is deemed inadvisable.
- b. The employee applying for such leave shall present to the President the plan for study he expects to pursue while on leave which must be approved by the President before the request for leave is granted. At the close of the period of leave, he shall file an appropriate report with the President.

20.16 Sabbatical Leave

- a. Employees in the bargaining unit shall be eligible for sabbatical leave which the employee may take with the approval of the President for the purpose of advanced study, independent research or pursuance of a higher academic degree at the completion of six (6) years of employment. A sabbatical leave of absence may be extended without pay or increment for one (1) additional year.

- d. All employees shall be guaranteed at least ten (10) consecutive vacation days per year. No vacation may be taken until an employee shall have served in the employ of the University of Rhode Island Board of Trustees for six (6) months; however, this time shall be included when crediting vacation time.

8. Seniority shall continue to accrue through the furlough period as if there were no break in service.

13. Furlough shall be defined as the break in service between periods of employment.

14. An employee in an academic year position may assert the seniority rights of Article XVII only over the employees in academic year positions.
15. All University PSA/NEA employees shall be granted up to eleven (11) vacation days per academic year. The vacation days are to be given in full at the start of academic year. And

UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND BOARD OF TRUSTEES/UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND
CONCERNING

RE: "Soft Money" Members of the PSA/NEARI/NEA Bargaining Unit
2021-2024 Contract

The parties hereby agree to this memorandum which shall apply exclusively to PSA employees supported in whole on federal or other grants, contracts, cooperative agreements, private funds, or indirect cost returns.

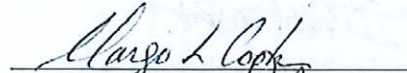

1. Recognizing the desire to reward and because of the characteristics of this category of employee, the parties agree that a supervisor, who is the principal Investigator on a grant, may initiate and recommend that an in-grade adjustment of 3-5% be granted to an employee for such high-quality performance where funding within the grant would permit. This recommendation shall be forwarded to the Dean and then to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs for their approval or disapproval. The decision of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs shall be final and not grievable.

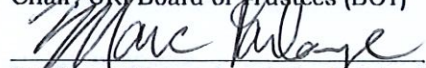

The source of payment for such pay adjustments and for all costs associated therewith shall be from the relevant federal or grant funds only. In no event shall state funds be used to support such increases or costs. In the event that an employee who has received such an increase becomes supported in whole or in part by state funds, such as through a change of position or a change in source of funding, such step increases shall become inoperative as a part of the employee's salary.¹ An employee may receive such increase only once during each contract year.

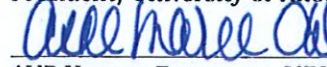

2. When the source of funding for an employee's salary is shifted from one grant to another, all properly accrued vacation time will automatically be carried over.
3. A Committee to Study "Soft Money" Employees Issue:
 - a. There shall be an Adhoc Committee, whose membership shall consist of three (3) members appointed by the URI/PSA President and three (3) members appointed by the Administration.
 - b. The purpose of said Committee shall be to study the entire area of "soft money" employees, including, but not limited to: compensation, seniority and recall, and other conditions of professional employment.
4. The employee's salary shall be reduced to the level it would be if such step increases had not been given

This Agreement shall terminate on June 30, 2024, unless it is extended by express agreement of the parties. This Agreement shall not constitute or be used as a precedent.

IV. MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT Between

(URI/PSA/NEARI/NEA)
and
THE UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND BOARD OF TRUSTEES/UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND
RE: Temporary and Short-Term Appointments

The parties agree that, notwithstanding Articles IX, XV, or XVIII, conditions sometimes exist when who is not currently employed within the bargaining unit is hired by The University.

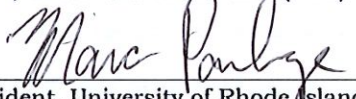

1. To temporarily replace an employee within the bargaining unit who is on leave without pay, maternity leave, military leave, or medical leave, or who has been temporarily promoted; or
2. To assume a short-term (six months or less) position of a temporary nature within the bargaining unit which is posted/advertised as such and is not to be extended.

When such conditions exist, the hired individuals shall not receive layoff notices at the end of the stated time, nor shall they receive recall rights. Employees who assume a position as described in #1 above, whose duration of employment is one year or more, shall not receive a layoff notice but shall receive recall rights. If an employee working under the condition described in #2 above is extended beyond the initial appointment in any position for a total of more than six months, said employee becomes subject to all provisions of the contract.

Employees appointed to a position for less than six months shall not be eligible to receive health benefits. Regardless of length of appointment, these employees shall pay dues or the agency fee in accordance with Article IV.

RE: REGARDING ARTICLE IX

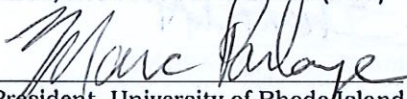

For mutual considerations hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree to the following interpretation of Article IX Posting of New and Vacant Positions with regard to acting, interim, or temporary positions/appointments:

Article IX does not apply to appointments made under Article XI, Compensation for Service in a Higher Classification. Article IX does not apply to acting, interim or temporary positions/appointments not included within the URI/PSA bargaining unit. Article IX does not apply to the appointment of replacements for individuals on sabbatical, sick, maternity, vacation, or any other kind of leave.

If The University does not appoint a member of the bargaining unit to an acting position/appointment within the bargaining unit prior to seeking external applicants, the University shall post the acting, interim or temporary position/appointment in accordance with Article IX of the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the University of Rhode Island Board of Trustees and the URI/PSA/NEARI except in an emergency.

RE: Increased Workload

The parties agree that there may be situations in which members of the bargaining unit have been assigned permanent responsibilities for an increased workload beyond their current job descriptions, which do not warrant pay grade increases. In such circumstances supervisors may recommend, with prior written approval by the appropriate Vice President/Provost, to Human Resources a 3% - 5% in-grade increase for such employee, not to exceed the maximum of the pay grade. The decision regarding the granting of such an increase shall rest with the President, or his/her designee, and shall not be grievable. All such recommendations must be forwarded to Human Resources.
