

University of Rhode Island

e-Campus

User ID and Password Registration

University of Rhode Island
Access and Compliance
(Data Confidentiality Statement)

PURPOSE:

By clicking the accept button below you certify that you are a user of URI Information and that you agree to abide by the state and federal laws and University policies that apply to the proper use of data and confidential information.

RESPONSIBILITY:

The granting of access carries with it an implicit bond of trust that:

- You will be a responsible user of data, whether it is data relating to your own unit or another unit.
- Data that you obtain from this system will be stored under secure conditions.
- You will make every reasonable effort to maintain privacy of the data.
- You will make every reasonable effort to interpret the data accurately and in a professional manner.
- You will not share data with others, electronically or otherwise, unless the recipient is authorized to access the data and understands his/her responsibilities as a user.
- You will not disclose to or share data with others under questionable or doubtful circumstances without first notifying your supervisor.
- You will sign off the systems when not using them.
- You will keep passwords to yourself.
- You will store/ secure confidential and sensitive information, reports, and the like in an appropriate manner when not using them.
- You will dispose of confidential reports in an appropriate manner when done with them.

VIOLATIONS:

Misuse of the data in or from this system will subject you to disciplinary action in accordance with state and federal laws and established University policies and/or the appropriate collective bargaining agreement.

CERTIFICATION:

I understand my obligations as a responsible user of the data to which I have been granted access.

Click the "Accept" button to continue the User ID registration process. Clicking "DO NOT ACCEPT" will end the process.

ACCEPT

DO NOT ACCEPT