

Review of Academic Misconduct Appeals

In the event that a student in an LIB or LTI course wishes to appeal a report of academic misconduct, a committee consisting of the current members of the Library Curriculum Committee will review the report and make a decision.

Another teaching Library faculty member will serve as an alternate if the student in question is a current or former student of one of the committee members.

Adopted by the University Libraries' Faculty
May 5, 2023