Dear Beloved Community

Join us for these events of Peace and Nonviolence!

Ping Pong for Peace

The University of Rhode Island is holding a Ping Pong Tournament on November 16th from 11am-3pm in the Memorial Union Ballroom. The entry donation is $1 (all donations appreciated) and all proceeds will go to hurricane relief programs. In honor of International Education Week, many different university clubs will attend. We'd love to see you there! More

Open Mic 4 Peace

We want your talent! Come show the Center what you've got on our Open Mic Night on November 16th. Registration starts at 6:30pm in 193 Coffeehouse in the Memorial Union with performances from 7pm to 9pm. All event proceeds will be donated to the Unidos por Puerto Rico hurricane relief organization. More

Abbot Lobsang Chedak

On Tuesday, November 28th at 7:15pm, Abbot Lobsang will share his Diwali Celebration

The Hindu Festival of Light is celebrated each autumn in India and in countries across the globe. This beautiful holiday honors light over darkness, good over evil, knowledge over ignorance and hope over despair. This November 18th, millions of candles and lights will be displayed in communities to commence this tradition. At 6pm, in the Memorial Union Ballroom, the Center will celebrate with a special performance. See you there!

Happy Thanksgiving!

Thanksgiving is the time to express gratitude for all the positive aspects of your life. The Center for Nonviolence and Peace Studies is grateful for all of our supporters and would like to wish all of our readers a wonderful and peaceful holiday.

Connect with us!

“If you want to end the war then Instead of sending guns, send books. Instead of sending tanks, send pens. Instead of sending soldiers, send teachers.”
~ Malala Yousafzai