

Every hand Makes a Difference

Have you ever wanted to have the opportunity to connect and help your community while learning a new skill?

By volunteering with South County Habitat for Humanity you can be part of the change you want to see in your community.

Join Lisa Chambers, Volunteer Coordinator for South County Habitat for Humanity for a presentation on how you can build strength, stability and self-reliance through affordable housing in your community.

Date: Friday, August 4th, 2023

Time: 10:00 am - 10:30 am

Location: OLLI at URI
