2024 COMPLAINTS AGAINST URI POLICE

Case #	Source	Report Type	Disposition
24-1-IA	Internal	Violation Department Rule	Sustained
24-2-IA	Internal	Inquiry	N/A
24-3-IA	Citizen	Unprofessional/Rude Conduct	Exonerated

Notes

24-1-IA An internal complaint was initiated to determine if an employee failed to adhere to their duties and failed to follow department policies related to code of conduct and adherence to orders through chain of command notification. Inquiry revealed that department policy was not followed, and officer was in violation of department policies and procedures.

24-2-IA An Internal Affairs (IA) case number was mistakenly initiated from the IMC computer aided dispatch/records management software system by the supervisor who was directed to conduct and inquiry into sick leave usage of a department employee. The inquiry was conducted administratively and was not intended to be an internal affairs complaint. Per department policy, case numbers are prohibited to be deleted from CADRMS under any circumstances.

24-3-IA A citizen complained that an interaction with a police officer was unprofessional while walking on the main campus and they felt the officer's demeanor and actions were improper and may have
