

Spring 2023 Dementia ECHO Series-
Approaches to Dementia Care: Building Blocks for Becoming Age-Friendly
Recorded Sessions

INSTRUCTIONS TO VIEW RECORDED DEMENTIA ECHO LEARNING SESSIONS:

1. In the table below, please click the title of the LEARNING session of interest. When you click the title, you will be redirected to a link to register to access the recording.
2. Immediately upon filling in the registration form, you will have access to the recording. Click the link at the bottom of the registration form to view the didactic portion of the recording.

Please contact Faith Helm at flees@uri.edu with any questions.

RECORDED LEARNING SESSIONS (click on the title to register to view each session)
Better Patient Care with an Age Friendly Approach Presented on March 30, 2023, by: Ana Tuya Fulton, MD, MBA, AGSF, FACP, Chief Population Health Officer and Executive Chief of Geriatrics and Palliative Care at Care New England Health System This session features a brief overview of the 4M Framework including, “What Matters Most, Medications, Mentation, &amp; Mobility.”
Functional Status Assessment for Patients with Dementia Presented on April 13, 2023, by: Robyn Earley MA, CCC- SLP, CDP, CMDCP Chief Growth Officer, CareLink Rhode Island This session features the importance of and best practices for functional status assessments for patients with dementia.
Safety Concerns when Caring for Someone with Dementia Presented on April 27, 2023, by: Lynn McNicoll, MD, AGSF, FRCPC, Associate Professor of Medicine-Alpert Medical School of Brown University Division of Geriatrics and Palliative Medicine This session features the importance of and best practices for safety screening assessments for patients with dementia.
Understanding and Responding to Behaviors Associated with Dementia Presented on May 11, 2023, by: Lauren J. Yabut, LICSW Assisted Living Community Administrator; Nursing Home Administrator at Charlesgate Senior Living Center &amp; Charlesgate Nursing Center This session addresses common triggers for behaviors associated with dementias and strategies to address them.
Support for Caregivers Presented on May 25, 2023, by: Annie Murphy, Program Manager, Rhode Island Chapter of the Alzheimer’s Association This session will identify the challenges of caregiver support, impact of caregiver burden, and resources to help support dementia caregivers.