A SILLY STORY

Pair up with a friend and ask them for words to fill in the blanks in the story (don’t let them peek!). Then, read the story out loud and laugh!

The other day I rode my __________________________ to my friend’s house. My friend __________________________ happens to be a __________________ . When I got there, we snacked on __________________________ and __________________________ then drank some __________________________ juice. It was very tasty. Then, we planted some seeds and watered them. A few days later there was a giant __________________________ growing in the kitchen. We couldn’t stop laughing.
