Student Conduct Process Flow Chart: NOTE: Allegations involving sexual and gender-based harassment, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking are heard under a separate process, the Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence Complaint Policy. All other violations of the University Community Standards of Behavior are adjudicated as outlined in the flow chart below.

1. Incident occurs involving student and/or student organization
2. Incident Report(s) submitted to Dean of Students or Housing and Residential Life Conduct Office
3. Report reviewed by Conduct Office and case assigned to Conduct Officer
4. Informal Meeting is scheduled based on the student's class schedule and a notification is sent to the student's URI Email address and/or notified by phone.
5. Student fails to appear for appointment or does not respond to requests for meeting
   - Student charged formally (in person or in writing via email);
     - Student has 3 business days to submit their Choice of Action Form
     - Student meets with Conduct Officer; Case is discussed and investigated
6. Student meets with Conduct Officer; Case is discussed and investigated
   - Student is not charged; receives warning letter or Outcome Letter indicating No Further Action or Not Responsible
   - Student charged formally (in person or in writing via email);
     - Student has 3 business days to submit their Choice of Action Form
   - Student accepts responsibility, not sanction
   - Student accepts responsibility and sanction
   - Student denies responsibility or fails to respond to written charges
     - Case is referred to Administrative Hearing or a Board Hearing
   - Case is referred to an Administrative Sanction-Only Hearing
7. Outcome Letter is emailed or delivered to the student within 3 business days
   - Student has 3 business days to appeal decision in writing to Dean of Students
8. Incident Report(s) submitted to Dean of Students or Housing and Residential Life Conduct Office