E. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Chair Hoover attended the student advisory committee. He wishes to email off-campus students a weekly newsletter, keeping them aware of happenings in their local area. Him in conjunction with the Student Leadership Council wishes to spread awareness of ongoing sticker/ordinance/nuisance reports, of which there was a record low as of this meeting.

F. PUBLIC FORUM

There was no public forum at this meeting. He plans to invite George Nonis in the coming future.

G. REPORTS OF THE LIAISONS & MANAGERS

PR/Communications Manager Newman expressed her discontent from the lack of responses to her planned social media highlight post. She also re-registered 4 Narragansett student voters.

Greek Life Liaison Sama was absent.

Risk Management Liaison Mayers expressed his satisfaction with the latest 2100 meeting, eager to work with IFC leadership.

H. REPORTS OF THE VICE CHAIR & CHAIR

Vice Chair Rudolph made an unequivocally poor mistake, noting that today was voter registration day when it was, in fact, yesterday... Nevertheless, he expressed his satisfaction with the September 20th celebration of such, noting that students across campus seemed eager to register and take part in the democratic process.

Chair Hoover discussed the current situation with the residents of Narragansett. He laid out an action plan to further evaluate how to better the situation.
