SS20/21-32 Resolution Thanking President Austyn Ramsay For Her Outstanding Leadership As President of The University of Rhode Island Student Senate President

Whereas, on April 1, 2020, Austyn O. Ramsay was sworn in as President of the University of Rhode Island Student Senate, and

Whereas, upon her swearing in President Ramsay became the first Afro-Latina President to lead the student body at the University of Rhode Island, and

Whereas, President Ramsay led the student body through what is likely the most turbulent period this university has ever faced, with the COVID-19 pandemic, the murder of Mr. George Floyd, and the search for a new university president all unfolding during her term, and

Whereas, throughout her term President Ramsay has worked tirelessly to advocate for all students at a time where many found themselves at their most vulnerable, and

Whereas, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, President Ramsay constantly fought for additional support for students by urging the university to provide cash payments to students through the Transition Assistance Grant program, through working with the Faculty Senate to try and ease the academic pressures overwhelmingly felt by students throughout the past year, and most importantly, by ensuring the continued functioning and activism of the Student Senate, and Whereas, while millions of protestors participated in demonstrations across the nation in pursuit of justice and equality for black Americans in the wake of Mr. George Floyd's murder, President Ramsay, along with the Senate's leadership, partnered with multicultural and Greek organizations at the university in order to raise funds in support of Black Lives Matter, and to address systemic racism in our community, and

Whereas, President Ramsay led the charge to make funds available in the amount of $50,000 to provide for additional programming for students at our university, and to help support student organizations, and

Whereas, President Ramsay's term as President of the University of Rhode Island Student Senate is nearing its conclusion, and with a bright future ahead of her, she will soon depart our university to attend law school in a pursuit of a J.D. Degree, now therefore be it,

Resolved, that the University of Rhode Island Student Senate applauds President Austyn O. Ramsay for her many accomplishments during her term as President of the Student Senate, and be it further,

Resolved, that the University of Rhode Island Student Senate thanks President Ramsay for her outstanding leadership and for her exceptional service to the student body, and be it further,

Resolved, that the University of Rhode Island Student Senate congratulates President Ramsay for completing her degree requirements and wishes her all of the best in her future endeavors.
