2. ORIENTATION

Chair Cook began this meeting by welcoming the Board to the meeting. She thanked them for their patience as they navigated through the challenges of meeting virtually for the last three meetings. She commended President Dooley on his vision and strategy of the URI Board of Trustee formation. Chair Cook shared that it was important for the Board to create a culture and series of procedures. She challenged the Board to think about how to act as one unitary voice on behalf of the University. She also challenged them to think about their operating procedures. Finally, she asked the Board to consider how to operate as one unit even when they do not agree; she encouraged them to think about how to support the President instead of a separate operating unit.

President David Dooley welcomed the Board. He shared that accomplishing great goals takes patience and persistence, along with great team collaboration. He shared that this in-person Board meeting represents a new era for The University of Rhode Island.

Dr. Carol Cartwright, Senior Consultant and Senior Fellow, Association of Governing Boards Consulting; President Emeritus, Kent State University and Bowling Green State University, shared her presentation entitled Role of University Trustee, Governance.

During the presentation, Mr. Ryan shared that an effective Board often challenges ideas, concepts, and opinions offered. These challenges lead to great ideas and a strong Board. However, given the Open Meetings Act, he asked how the Board can challenge each other while still appearing to be a cohesive unit.

Dr. Cartwright shared that educating the public about the way the Board goes about its business when arriving at decisions is critical. The Board will have to share with the public that debate, and dialogue is how the Board gets its business done. The Chair can be very explicit when crafting the agenda acknowledging that discussion will occur. If these times are marked as deliberate and purposeful, the public will understand this is just part of the process.

Mr. Ryan asked about the Board’s role in educational quality. Dr. Cartwright shared that the Board must be sure that the programs offered by the University are being regularly assessed. It is not the job of the Board to do the assessment, but it is the Board’s job as a fiduciary to be sure that educational quality is measured. The Board can work closely with the Provost. This data can include enrollment, graduation rates, student employment rates post-graduation, and program enrollment.

Mr. Lenz asked the Board’s responsibility in ensuring academic freedom. Dr. Cartwright shared that the University needs to have appropriate policies in place to protect the appropriate parties for both academic freedom and freedom of expression. The Board needs to also make sure the University acts within the scopes of its policies that it has created surrounding these freedoms.

Mr. Ryan asked for clarity on speaking to the media as a Trustee. Dr. Cartwright pointed out how the Committee Charters and Bylaws state that the Board Chair speaks for the Board, and the President speaks for the University. The Trustee’s job is to support the Board and not act as a separate unit.

Mr. DelGiudice strongly discouraged individual Board Members from reaching out to individual staff members at the University. All inquiries should go through the Chair. Chair Cook also stated that all media requests go through the President or the Board Chair.

Mr. Ownjazayeri asked for clarity and guidelines on how to have a conversation with the general public because questions will inevitably arise. Chair Cook responded that Board Members can absolutely have a conversation, but it must never reveal anything confidential about the University.

Chair Cook shared that the authority of the President needs to be addressed; the Board needs to determine what defining amount of the University’s resources trigger input from the Board. Dr. Cartwright stated that it is important for the Board to discuss when they would like to be involved in the decision-making process.
Chair Cook shared her major take away from this presentation included how to address the Board’s decisions in a public setting. Vice Chair McNally commented that the legislation for the Board is complicated and there is a lot of work that must be done to ensure the Board’s success.
