

Mountains and Molecules

Wednesday, April 17, 2019 — 5:00 PM

Hope Room, URI Robert J. Higgins Welcome Center, 45 Upper College Road, Kingston, RI 02881

Arlene Blum, PhD

Executive Director, Green Science Policy Institute

Research Associate, UC Berkeley

Blum's science and policy work has drawn attention to the use of and ways to reduce exposure to harmful chemicals, including PFASs. In recognition of her contributions, she was recently inducted to the California Hall of Fame. Blum is also an avid mountaineer and led the first American — and all-woman — ascent of Annapurna I, which led to her authoring Annapurna: A Woman's Place. In addition, she was elected to the Hall of Mountaineering Excellence.
