

Naomi Delgado

Warwick, RI • (401) 837-5555 • naomi.delgado@uri.edu • linkedin.com/ndelgado

EDUCATION:

University of Rhode Island, Kingston RI

May 2022

Bachelor of Arts, Psychology

Minor: Africana Studies

RELATED COURSEWORK:

Behavior Problems and Personality Disorders, URI

January 2020 - May 2020

- Evaluated behavioral disorders as found in the major forms of character disorders, psychoneuroses, and psychoses
- Interpreted symptoms and methods of treatment of anxiety and defense mechanisms

The Psychology of Social Behavior, URI

September 2021 - December 2021

- Conceptual and empirical analyses of individual behavior in social contexts
- Focused on understanding social motivation, attitude development and change, liking, conformity, aggression and altruism

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE:

President, Powerful, Independent, Notoriously, Knowledgeable (PINK) Women

September 2020 – Present

- Elected President after 3 years of membership
- Lead a group of 20+ women to develop a sense of belonging to increase the retention of multicultural women at URI
- Partner with the Center for Career and Experiential Education (CCEE) to create workshops for members focused on professional development and leadership opportunities
- Organize multiple events that unite the members by coming together to share various cultural experiences

Resident Assistant (RA), URI Housing and Residential Life

January 2021 – December 2021

- Supported students living in residence halls through one-on-one conversations and conflict mediation
- Created a positive living environment by facilitating weekly meetings with all residents
- Provided crisis intervention for students that are at risk for harmful behaviors through positive reinforcement

SOCIAL JUSTICE AND INCLUSION EXPERIENCE:

Undergraduate Assistant, URI Women's Center

August 2020 – Present

- Engage and foster continual dialogue on gender and issues by organizing events with members through social media
- Serve as the coordinator for all students that come to the Center to report abuse, violence and oppression
- Educate various URI departments and community partners on gender equity on campus and in the workplace
- Cultivate and distribute marketing materials for the Center through Adobe InDesign and social media platforms

Intern, URI Multicultural Student Services Center

January 2020 – September 2021

- Collaborated with staff members to create multiple cultural events and resources for students of color on campus
- Supported access for students of color on campus by creating a reflection series for student groups
- Created two new co-curricular opportunities to put students' learning in action by partnering with faculty
- Facilitated a speaker series to prepare students for lifelong advocacy in their daily lives

Student Member, Alumni of Color Network (ACN), University of Rhode Island

January 2020 – May 2021

- Coordinated Recognition Dinner for campus community and alumni
- Planner in a Virtual Toast for the Class of 2020

SKILLS, CERTIFICATIONS AND HONORS:

- Proficient in Microsoft Suite: Excel, Word, Powerpoint; Adobe Suite: InDesign and Photoshop
- Fluent in Spanish
- Mental Health First Aid Certified, January 2020
- Book Award Scholarship Recipient, URI Alumni of Color Network (ACN), 2020