

Gary Kayakachoian, PhD, MBA

Senior Lecturer - Finance

2013-2018

Qualifications: 2000, PhD in Finance, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI
1987, MBA, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY
1979, BS, Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA

Teaching Responsibilities: (4/4), Four undergraduate or graduate courses per semester averaging 35 students/course: Multinational Financial Management, Financial Institutions and Markets, Financial Management

Service to U.R.I. College of Business:

2016-present Member of Instructor Review and Promotion Committee
2016-present Member of SIMBA Evaluation Committee
2016-2017 Member of Student Success Task Force
2009-2016 Member of Curriculum and Assessment Committee

External Engagement:

Reviewer for "Fundamentals of Corporate Finance 4e," Parrino (Wiley Publishing) Spring, 2017
"Cashless Society Risks Loss of Freedom," co-author Koray Ozpolat, Providence Journal, December 9, 2014
"Can R.I. Friends Heal Armenian Tragedy?" co-author Koray Ozpolat, Providence Journal, April 27, 2015
Quoted in "Rhode Islanders come to aid of Hurricane Harvey victims," Providence Business News, September 8, 2017
Quoted in "How to Decide Where to Donate Your Money After Disasters," The New York Times, September 27, 2017
Quoted in "Bang for your buck: Budgeting so you don't go broke in college," Good 5 Cent Cigar, October 12, 2017
Interviewed for Good 5 Cent Cigar newscast of 10/12/17. Topic: How Students Can Save Money
Interviewed for WPRI newscast of 10/29/17. Topic: Weekend Tropical Storm
Member of Armenian Missionary Association of America (1987-present)

Recent Conferences Attended:

Boston College Finance Conference (June, 2013)
Boston College Finance Conference (June, 2014)
Boston College Finance Conference (June, 2015)