

Roberta I. Newell, CPA

Senior Lecturer in Accounting

2013-2014

Qualifications: Scholarly Practitioner (SP); 2001, Certified Public Accountant (RI); 1996, M.S. Accounting, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI

Teaching Responsibilities: (4/4), four undergraduate classes per semester averaging 40 students per course. Courses include Financial Accounting, Intermediate Accounting I & II and Federal Tax Accounting.

Out of load courses: an MBA course in financial accounting and an Intermediate Accounting II summer course.

Teaching Impact and Engagement:

Developed and administered assessment for student research abilities
Modified MBA course for online learning platform
Adapted course to include student response system

Professional Engagement:

Co-Faculty Advisor – PwC Challenge case completion (2016 & 2017)
American Academic Association (AAA) Northeast Conference – session moderator
URI College of Business Career Day moderator
College of Business Strategic Planning Committee
CPA – Accounting and tax consultant
PwC Accounting and Tax Symposium – attendee
Member of American Academic Association

Service Engagement:

URI 101 - speaker
Student Senate Women of URI Forum - speaker
URI Welcome Days and Open Houses – volunteer
Search Committee – Lecturer in Finance