

Ann-Marie Sacco, MBA, CAM

Lecturer in Accounting 2013-2017, Senior Lecturer in Accounting 2017-2018

2013-2018

Qualifications: 1983 MBA, 1994 CAM Babson College.

Teaching Responsibilities: (4/4), Four courses per semester averaging 42 students per class, 170 per semester. One Year MBA, 2014, MSA Directed Study 2018.

Professional Engagement:

- Consultant for adopting ABC Costing, Improving Supply Chain, and Renegotiating Medicaid. 2016
- Consulting- Shire Pharmaceuticals, L3 Defense Optics. 2017
- Assisted “start ups” in designing, managing and accounting for all transactions and cash flow. Design a system of internal controls. 2013
- Director Ali Sacco Memorial Fund-Provides a yearly, life-changing experience for high school and college students at Boston Children’s Hospital. 2013-2018
- Attended and served as moderator at the American Accounting Association, northeast annual meetings.

Student Professional Engagement:

- Program Initiation-Researched and facilitated initiation of a CMA Track, 2017.
- Advisor to an Hydrobotics Engineering Team- Team is preparing to compete internationally in building an underwater robot. Assisted with fundraising and communication. Paired students to consult on presentation, 2017-2018.
- Institute of Management Accounting (IMA)- Led teams of students to annual meetings and IMA case competitions, in which the URI team was a semi-finalist, 2016-2018.

Academic and Pedagogical Impact

- University NEASC Assessment- Trained and currently serve as an assessment report reviewer.
- Served on the Lecturer Review and Promotion Committee. 2018.
- AACSB Assessment 2017-18-Chose cases for critical thinking and writing for seniors and sophomores.
- Advisor to the Women in Business Organization. Accompanied students to the annual WIB Harvard Leadership Conference
- Interim Advisor to Beta Alpha Psi.
- Inducted into Delta Sigma Pi-Chosen by students to be the 2017 faculty inductee.
- Introduced Case-method to the Managerial Accounting.
- Adapted Course for Tophat Software, 2016.
- Served on a panel to discuss the process of Lecturer Review and Promotion hosted by the Provosts Office and AAUP, 2018.
- Served on Strategic Planning Task Force for Advancement, 2017.
- Served on College Curriculum Committee, 2013.
- Career Day Moderator 2015 and 2016.
- Participated in Business Etiquette Dinner and held Etiquette Training for 50 members of Delta Sigma Pi Fraternity.

