

Register online:
URI.EDU/OLLI
or call 401-874-4197

'Tis the Season

Monday, December 12,
3:00PM-4:30PM at OLLI

Max: 20 $60

(Includes class fee and all materials)

Create your own holiday arrangement with a mix of fresh-cut evergreens such as pine, cedar, spruce, holly, and ivy along with natural additions like rose hips and pinecones.

A container with oasis will be provided. Participants are also welcome to use their own 8" or smaller container if they prefer, bring candles to include in their creation, or cut or forage from their own gardens to bring individual flair to their unique creations.

Elaine Godfrey is the owner of Weedweaver's floral design studio in Wakefield specializing in artistic florals that are naturally inspired and organic in design. Elaine is a gardener and designer who grows much of her own natural materials and loves to celebrate the best designer of all, Mother Nature.