Board of Trustees
University of Rhode Island
Kingston, Rhode Island

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinions

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the business-type activities and the aggregate discretely presented component units of University of Rhode Island (a component unit of the State of Rhode Island) (the University), as of and for the year ended June 30, 2022, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the University's basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents.

In our opinion, based on our audit and the reports of other auditors, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the respective financial position of the business-type activities and the aggregate discretely presented component units the University of Rhode Island as of June 30, 2022, and the changes in financial position, and where applicable, cash flows thereof for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We did not audit the financial statements of the discretely presented component units, University of Rhode Island Foundation & Alumni Engagement and University of Rhode Island Research Foundation, which represents 100% of the assets, net position, and revenues of the discretely presented component units as of June 30, 2022, and the respective changes in financial position and cash flows thereof for the year then ended. Those statements were audited by other auditors, whose reports have been furnished to us, and our opinions, insofar as it relates to the amounts included for the University of Rhode Island Foundation & Alumni Engagement and University of Rhode Island Research Foundation, is based solely on the report of the other auditors.

Basis for Opinions

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS) and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the University and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions. The financial statements of University of Rhode Island Foundation & Alumni Engagement and University of Rhode Island Research Foundation were not audited in accordance with Government Auditing Standards.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about University of Rhode Island's ability to continue as a going concern for twelve months beyond the financial statement date, including any currently known information that may raise substantial doubt shortly thereafter.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinions. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS and Government Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS and Government Auditing Standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the University's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

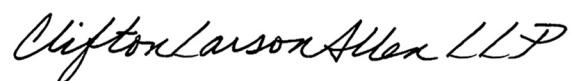

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Required Supplementary Information

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that management's discussion and analysis, the schedule of proportionate share of the net pension liability, the schedule of pension contributions, the notes to the pension required supplementary information, the schedule of proportionate share of the net OPEB liability, the schedule of OPEB contributions, and the notes to the OPEB required supplementary information be presented to supplement the basic financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and, although not a part of the basic financial statements, is required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board, who considers it to be an essential part of financial reporting for placing the basic financial statements in an appropriate operational, economic, or historical context. We have applied certain limited procedures to the required supplementary information in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which consisted of inquiries of management about the methods of preparing the information and comparing the information for consistency with management's responses to our inquiries, the basic financial statements, and other knowledge we obtained during our audit of the basic financial statements. We do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on the information because the limited procedures do not provide us with sufficient evidence to express an opinion or provide any assurance.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated October 21, 2022, on our consideration of the University's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the University's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

Management's Discussion and Analysis (Unaudited)

June 30, 2022

Introduction

The following management's discussion and analysis ("MD&A") provides management's view of the financial position of the University of Rhode Island ("the University") as of June 30, 2022 and the results of operations for the year then ended, with selected comparative information for the year ended June 30, 2021. The purpose of the MD&A is to assist readers in understanding the accompanying financial statements by providing an objective and understandable analysis of the University's financial activities based on currently known facts, decisions, and conditions. This analysis has been prepared by management, which is responsible for the completeness and fairness of the information contained therein. The MD&A consists of highly summarized information, and it should be read in conjunction with the University's financial statements and notes thereto that follow this section.

The University is the only publicly supported research institution in the State of Rhode Island ("the State") and is charged with providing state residents an opportunity for undergraduate and graduate studies at a Land Grant, Urban Grant, and Sea Grant research university. As such, the University receives federal funding for land and sea research. The University had its beginning as the State Agricultural School chartered in 1888. The Morrill Act of 1862 provided the framework within which the school became the State's land-grant institution, and in 1892 the school became the Rhode Island College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts. In 1909, the name of the University was changed to Rhode Island State College, and the program of study was revised and expanded. In 1951, the University became known as the University of Rhode Island by an act of the State's General Assembly. The Board of Governors for Higher Education became the governing body for the University in 1981.

Effective February 1, 2020, the University of Rhode Island is no longer governed by the Rhode Island Council on Postsecondary Education, the successor to the Board of Governors for Higher Education, but is governed by a Board of Trustees consisting of 17 members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Rhode Island Senate. The board will be dedicated solely to the University and will exercise similar powers and authority as was exercised by the Council on Postsecondary Education including oversight of employment, and the University's property, purchases, and procurement. The University president will report to the Board of Trustees.

The Rhode Island Council on Postsecondary Education continues to oversee Rhode Island College and the Community College of Rhode Island.

Introduction – Continued

The mission of the University is to enrich the lives of its students through its land, sea, and urban grant traditions. Students, faculty, staff, and alumni are united in one common purpose; to learn and lead together. The University values (1) creativity and scholarship (2) diversity, fairness, and respect, (3) engaged learning and civic involvement, and (4) intellectual and ethical leadership. The University's Transformation Goals for the 21st Century are: (1) create a 21st century 24/7 learning environment, (2) increase the magnitude, prominence, and impact of research, scholarship, and creative work, (3) internationalize and globalize the University, and (4) build a community at the University that values and embraces equality and diversity.

The University has a combined enrollment of 17,511 students and offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs through the doctoral level. The University has over 100 majors in seven degree granting colleges. Its main campus is located in Kingston, Rhode Island, 30 miles south of Providence in the northeastern metropolitan corridor between New York and Boston. In addition to the Kingston Campus, the University has two other campuses - the 165-acre Narragansett Bay Campus, which is the site of the Graduate School of Oceanography and the Alan Shawn Feinstein College of Education and Professional Studies located in downtown Providence. In addition, the University owns a 2,300-acre parcel in Western Rhode Island that was formerly the environmental education research programs and conference center. This parcel continues to be used for University research activities.

Overview of the Financial Statements

The University's financial statements have two primary components: 1) the financial statements and 2) the notes to the financial statements. Additionally, the financial statements focus on the University as a whole, rather than upon individual funds or activities.

The University of Rhode Island Foundation & Alumni Engagement (the "Foundation") and the University of Rhode Island Research Foundation and its Non-Profit Affiliated Corporation, 401 Tech Bridge (the "Research Foundation") are legally separate tax-exempt component units of the University.

The University of Rhode Island Foundation & Alumni Engagement acts as an independent charitable corporation with the purpose of encouraging and providing support from private sources through development activities for the University of Rhode Island and is responsible for managing and administering assets donated to the Foundation for the use and benefit of the University. The Board of the Foundation is self-perpetuating and primarily consist of graduates and friends of the University. Although the University does not control the timing or the amount of receipts from the Foundation, the majority of resources received or held by the Foundation are restricted to the activities of the University by the donors. Because these resources held by the Foundation can only be used by or are for the benefit of the University, the Foundation is considered a component unit of the University and is discretely presented in the University's financial statements.

The Research Foundation's mission is to promote industry and University collaboration and new technology ventures for economic growth and job creation. The Research Foundation's unique private, not-for-profit status allows it to support a broad range of investments and intellectual property protection. The Research Foundation is affiliated with the University by common management; however, each organization has its own independent board of trustees/directors. The Research Foundation obtains significant managerial and financial support from the University, including the salaries for the University Associate Vice-President for Intellectual Property and Economic Development, who also serves as the Executive Director of the Research Foundation, other support staff, and the provision of operational costs. Because of the relationship, the Research Foundation is considered a component unit of the University and is discretely presented in the University's financial statements.

Management's Discussion and Analysis is required to focus on the University, and not on its component units.

The Financial Statements

The financial statements are designed to provide readers with a broad overview of the University's finances and are comprised of three basic statements.

The Statement of Net Position presents information on all of the University's assets, deferred outflows of resources, liabilities, and the deferred inflows of resources along with the resulting net financial position. Over time, increases or decreases in net position may serve as a useful indicator of whether the financial position of the University is improving or deteriorating.

The Statement of Revenues and Expenses and Changes in Net Position presents information showing how the University's net position changed during the most recent fiscal year. All changes in net position are reported as soon as the underlying event giving rise to the change occurs, regardless of the timing of related cash flows. Thus, revenues and expenses are reported in this statement for some items that will result in cash flows only in future fiscal periods (e.g., the payment for accrued compensated absences or the receipt of amounts due from students and others for services rendered).

The Statement of Cash Flows is reported using the direct method. The direct method of cash flow reporting portrays net cash flows from operations as major classes of operating receipts (e.g., tuition and fees) and disbursements (e.g., cash paid to employees for services).

The financial statements can be found on pages 26 to 29 of this report.

The University reports its operations as a business-type activity using the economic measurement focus and full accrual basis of accounting. As a component unit of the State of Rhode Island, the results of the University's operations, its net position, and cash flows are also summarized in the State's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report derived from its government-wide financial statements.

Notes to the Financial Statements

The notes provide additional information essential to a full understanding of the data provided in the financial statements. They also provide information regarding both the accounting policies and procedures the University has adopted as well as additional detail of certain amounts contained in the financial statements. The notes to the financial statements can be found on pages 31 to 76 of this report.

Financial Analysis

As mentioned earlier, net position may serve over time as a useful indicator of the University's financial position. Total assets and deferred outflows of resources exceeded total liabilities and deferred inflows of resources by $631.35 million and $585.97 million at the close of fiscal years 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Management's Discussion and Analysis (Unaudited) - Continued

Financial Analysis - Continued

By far the largest portion of the University's net position, $592.46 million and $594.14 million, as of June 30, 2022, and 2021, respectively, reflects its investment in capital assets (such as land, buildings, machinery, and equipment), net of any related outstanding debts used to acquire, construct, improve, or rehabilitate those assets. This represents approximately 94% for fiscal year 2022 and 101% for fiscal year 2021 net position. The University uses these capital assets to provide services to students, faculty, and administration; consequently, these assets are not available for future spending. Although the University's investment in its capital assets is reported net of related debt, it should be noted that the resources needed to repay this debt must be provided from other sources, since the capital assets themselves cannot be used to liquidate the related debt. Financing for certain capital projects is also provided by the issuance of revenue bonds by the Rhode Island Health and Educational Building Corporation, a quasi-public state agency. In addition to the debts noted above, which are reflected in the University's financial statements, the State regularly provides financing for certain capital projects through the issuance of general obligation bonds and capital appropriations from the Rhode Island Capital Plan Fund. Borrowings by the State are not reflected in these financial statements.

The restricted expendable net position consists of resources that are subject to external restrictions on how they must be used. These resources represent approximately 0.6% of the University's net position at June 30, 2022, and 2021.

Net positions that are not subject to restrictions imposed by creditors, grantors, contributors, laws, regulations, or enabling legislation are classified as unrestricted net position. As of June 30, 2022, and 2021, the University's unrestricted net position represents 5.6% and (2.0%) of the net position, respectively. At year end, this net position is designated or committed for goods and services that have not yet been received, working capital for auxiliary enterprise, and departmental activities, payment of annual debt service, capital improvements, equipment replacement, scholarships, and new faculty startup costs, including lab renovation and matching funds.

The University's current assets include cash and equivalents, cash held by the State Treasurer, accounts receivable, inventories, and prepayments, while current liabilities consist of accounts payable and accrued expenses, unearned revenues, funds held for others, and the current portion of compensated absences and current portion of long-term debts. Compensated absences represent accumulated vacation, sick leave, and deferred compensation that will be used or paid in future years. The current ratio (current assets divided by current liabilities), which measures the University's liquidity, remains positive: 3.16 to 1 and 3.14 to 1 as of June 30, 2022, and 2021, respectively.

Operating Revenues

The total operating revenues increased by $53.71 million or 12.44% in fiscal year 2022, compared to an decrease of $22.50 million or (4.95%) in fiscal year 2021. There was an increase in tuition from 2021 to 2022; this increase was 2.2 % for in-state students and 2.4% for out-of-state students. The Housing fees increased by $15.82 million or by 52.95% and the Dining service fees increased by $6.2 million or by 47.40%. This is the result of a 2% increase in fees and the student population living on campus returning to pre-pandemic levels.

Tuition and fees received by the University included the following (dollars in millions):

	2022	2021*
Tuition	$ 349.46	338.31
Student service fees	22.69	22.54

Grant and Contract Revenue

The recognition of revenue from grants and contracts is deferred until services have been performed to fulfill the requirements of the grants and contracts. Hence, awards received are not reflected in the statement of revenues and expenses and changes in net position.

The bar chart below shows the amount of grants awarded (not necessarily recognized as revenue) to the University during the last ten years, from a total of $76.5 million in 2013 to $116.4 million in 2022 or an 52.2% increase. The decrease in fiscal year 2014 relates to the federal sequestration and the loss of ARRA funding. The large increase in 2021 relates to the Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds (HEERF) and Coronavirus Relief Funds (CRF) funding.

Nonoperating Revenues and Expenses

The State's unrestricted appropriation is the largest component of the University's nonoperating revenues. The amount requested for fiscal year 2022 was $87.6 million. The amount appropriated by the State was $90.39 million which was $2.7 million more than requested.

The University has a long tradition of using the State appropriation to support its operating expenses. During fiscal years 2022 and 2021 the University received State appropriations of $90.39 million and $78.15 million, respectively, which then combined with operating revenue was not sufficient to cover operating expenses in excess of $41.80 million in fiscal year 2022 and $60.34 million in fiscal year 2021. The University's State appropriation is roughly equal to amount it was twenty years ago. The appropriation dipped down starting in fiscal year 2008 and started to increase in fiscal year 2014 and is now roughly equal to the amount of the appropriation in 2001. Student tuition and fees have played an increasingly important role in funding of the University's operations; however, these fees do not fully cover operating losses by $41.80 million in fiscal year 2022 and $60.34 million in fiscal year 2021. A summary of net income after State appropriation is presented below (dollars in millions).

The following chart provides a graphical breakdown of the University's nonoperating revenues and expenses.

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the global outbreak of the novel coronavirus a pandemic. In response to the pandemic, the Federal government provided to the University Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds ("HEERF") under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security ("CARES") Act, Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act ("CRRSAA"), and American Rescue Plan Act ("ARPA").

The University also received approximately $14,000,000 of Coronavirus relief funds as a pass through from the state of Rhode Island.

Capital Assets and Debt Administration

Capital Plan

The University generally has funded its capital plans through a combination of funds received from University operations, bonds issued by the Rhode Island Health and Educational Building Corporation, State appropriations, general obligation bonds, federal appropriations, and private fundraising. The execution of the University's capital improvement plan is contingent upon approval from the State and sufficient funding.

Capital Assets and Debt Administration - Continued

The Board of Trustees submits a running five-fiscal-year capital improvement plan to the General Assembly and State Executive each year. The plan for the period fiscal year 2022-2026 for the University totals $997.7 million, and includes all continuing and planned projects, whether funded or not. This plan forms the basis for discussions on funding the various projects from all available funding sources.

The University's investment in capital assets as of June 30, 2022, and 2021 net of accumulated depreciation amounts to $851.55 million and $861.85 million, respectively. This investment in capital assets includes land, buildings (including improvements), and furnishings and equipment (including capital leases). Capital assets decreased during fiscal year 2022 year by $10.30 million and $24.67 million in fiscal year 2021. This decrease is largely due to the lack of any major capital improvements during 2022 and 2021. Legal title to all land and real estate assets is vested in the BOE or the State. A summary of net capital asset balances is presented below (dollars in millions).

	2022	2021
Land and improvements	$ 48.93	48.29
Major capital additions to building and improvements	739.52	769.54

Construction in progress	27.69	10.62
Total	$ 851.55	861.85

Major capital additions in fiscal year 2022 included improvements to Ranger Hall ($7.0 Million), Narragansett Bay Campus Pier replacement ($5.3 million), Fine Arts Building ($2.1 million), and roof replacement on Heathman Hall ($1.8 million). Also included were land improvements to Upper College Road ($3.3 million).

Additional information about the University's capital assets can be found in Note 5 to the financial statements.

Debt

As of June 30, 2022, and 2021, the University had $284.07 million and $298.51 million, respectively, in outstanding debt, a decrease of $14.44 million in 2022 and $15.90 million in 2021. The table below summarizes the types of debt instruments (dollars in millions).

	2022	2021
Loans payable	$ 0.22	0.37
Lease obligations	3.96	-
Due to Primary Government	17.59	19.27
Revenue bonds	262.3	278.87
Total	$ 284.07	298.51

The University has no independent bonding authority. All revenue bonds must be approved by and arranged through the Rhode Island Health and Education Building Corporation. Debt related to revenue bonds is reported on the University's financial statements. Debt related to general obligations bonds is reflected on the State's financial statements. As of June 30, 2022, the University's general revenue bonds are rated by Moody's as a3, and Standard and Poor's rating services have given rates of A+.

Economic Factors that Will Affect the Future

The University is a tuition-dependent institution, thus attention to strategic enrollment management is a critical element of the University's financial stability and self-sufficiency. Over the past eight years, the University has experienced near/record enrollment driven by record number of applications. Recognizing an increased competition for students, the University has expanded its recruitment to include growth areas throughout the country, for example, in the Mid-Atlantic and Northern Virginia. Furthermore, the University's in-state and out-of-state tuition rates are among the lowest for both in-state and out-of-state New England competitors.

The University is sensitive to the rising costs of higher education and strives to achieve efficiencies to limit the size of tuition and fee increases. The University and Board of Education approved an increase in tuition from 2021 to 2022 of 2.2% for in-state students and 2.4% for out-of-state students.

To support strategic priorities and continue record enrollment, the University continues to enhance its faculty and facilities to meet demand and to offer a world-class education. In July 2018, the National Science Foundation selected the East Coast Oceanographic Consortium, led by the University of Rhode Island, to operate a new $125 million oceanography research ship named the R/V Resolution. The R/V Resolution will support such scientific studies as the tracking of ocean currents and fish migration, seafloor surveys in earthquake-prone regions of the world, conservation of marine mammals, and the food-web dynamics in the deep ocean. The new ship is expected to be launched in 2023.

Fiscal Planning

The University will continue to ensure that expenses are less than or equal to available resources. Approved strategic initiatives are reflected in the budget and have been and will continue to be funded by student enrollment, retention, and tuition and fee resources. IPEDS data continues to show the University as one of the most cost efficient institutions of higher education in the country.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

The University of Rhode Island (the "University") is a State Land-Sea-and-Urban-Grant University. Chartered in 1951, the University offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs of study and also confers doctoral degrees. The University has three campuses throughout Rhode Island in addition to the main campus located in Kingston. The University is accredited by the New England Commission of Higher Education. In addition, certain courses and programs of study have been approved by national accrediting agencies. The University is supported by the State of Rhode Island (the "State") and is a component unit of the State of Rhode Island. Effective February 1, 2020, the University is governed by the Board of Trustees of the University of Rhode Island.

The Board of Trustees, consisting of 17 members, was appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Rhode Island Senate. The Board of Trustees is dedicated solely to the University and exercises similar powers and authority as was previously exercised by the Council on Postsecondary Education, including oversight of employment and the University's property, purchases, and procurement. The University President reports to the Board of Trustees.

Prior to February 2020, the University was governed by the Rhode Island Board of Education (the "BOE") (successor to the Board of Governors for Higher Education effective January 1, 2013), a body politic and corporate established under Chapter 97 of Title 16 of the General Laws of Rhode Island. The BOE consists of public members appointed by the Governor.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using the economic resources measurement focus and the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles as prescribed by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board ("GASB"). Revenues are recorded when earned and expenses are recorded when a liability is incurred, regardless of the timing of related cash flows. Grants and similar items are recognized as revenues as soon as all eligibility requirements have been met. The University has determined that it functions as a business-type activity, as defined by GASB. The effect of interfund activity has been eliminated from these financial statements.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

The University's policies for defining operating activities in the statement of revenues and expenses and change in net position are those that generally result from exchange transactions such as the payment received for services and payment made for the purchase of goods and services. Certain other transactions are reported as nonoperating activities. These nonoperating activities include the University's operating and capital appropriations from the State, net investment income, gifts, and interest expense.

The accompanying statement of revenues and expenses, and changes in net position demonstrate the degree to which the direct expenses of a given function are offset by program revenues. Direct expenses are those that are clearly identifiable within a specific function. Program revenues primarily include charges to students or others who enroll or directly benefit from services that are provided by a particular function. Items not meeting the definition of program revenues are instead reported as general revenue.

Component Units

The University of Rhode Island Foundation & Alumni Engagement (the "Foundation") and the University of Rhode Island Research Foundation and its Non-Profit Affiliated Corporation, 401 Tech Bridge, (the "Research Foundation") are legally separate tax-exempt component units of the University. In September 2020, the Board Members of The Research Foundation incorporated a non-profit entity named 401 Tech Bridge for the purpose of creating a subsidiary to participate in certain grant activity.

The Foundation acts primarily as a fundraising organization to supplement the resources that are available to the University in support of its programs. The board of the Foundation is self-perpetuating and primarily consist of graduates and friends of the University. Although the University does not control the timing or the amount of receipts from the Foundation, the majority of resources received or held by the Foundation are restricted to the activities of the University by the donors. Because these resources held by the Foundation can only be used by, or are for the benefit of, the University, the Foundation is considered a component unit of the University and is discretely presented in the University's financial statements.

The Research Foundation's mission is to promote industry and University collaboration and new technology ventures for economic growth and job creation. The Research Foundation's unique private, not-for-profit status allows it to support a broad range of technology transfer activities, including licensing, startup company formation, equity investments, and intellectual property protection. The Research Foundation is affiliated with the University by common management; however, each organization has its own independent board of trustees/directors. The Research Foundation obtains significant managerial and financial support from the University, including the salaries for the University Associate Vice President for Intellectual Property and Economic Development, who also serves as the Executive Director of the Research Foundation; other support staff, and the provision of operational costs. Because of this relationship, the Research Foundation is considered a component unit of the University and is discretely presented in the University's financial statements.

During the year ended June 30, 2022, the Foundation distributed $22,753,045 to the University for both restricted and unrestricted purposes.

As of June 30, 2022, the component units have a liability to the University of $4,820,459 which is reflected in other current liabilities. The University has an offsetting receivable recorded for the same amount included in accounts receivable.

The University has a fundraising agreement with the Foundation and paid $7,333,500. The University has a support agreement with the Research Foundation and paid $369,346.

The University of Rhode Island Foundation & Alumni Engagement and the Research Foundation are private not-for-profit organizations that report under FASB standards, including ASC 958-205, Presentation of Financial Statements for Not-for-Profit Entities, and ASC 958-605, Revenue Recognition for Not-for-Profit Entities. Accordingly, certain revenue recognition criteria and presentation features are different from GASB revenue recognition criteria and presentation features. No modifications have been made to the Foundation or Research Foundation's financial information in the University's financial reporting entity for these differences.

Net Position

Resources are classified for accounting purposes into the following three net position categories:

Net Investment in Capital Assets: Capital assets, net of accumulated depreciation, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and of outstanding principal balances of debt attributable to the acquisition, construction, repair, or improvement of those assets.

Restricted – Expendable: Net position whose use is subject to externally imposed conditions that can be fulfilled by the actions of the University or by the passage of time.

Unrestricted: All other categories of net position. Unrestricted net position may be designated by the University.

The University has adopted a policy of generally utilizing restricted – expendable funds, when available, prior to unrestricted funds.

Cash and Equivalents

Cash and equivalents consist entirely of highly liquid financial instruments with an original maturity date of three months or less.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Accounts receivable are periodically evaluated for collectability based on past history with students. Provisions for losses on receivables are determined on the basis of loss experience, known and inherent risks in the receivables portfolio, the estimated value of underlying collateral, and current economic conditions.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out, and retail inventory method) or market, and consist primarily of bookstore, dining, health, and residential life services items. Inventory for the year ended June 30, 2022 totaled $2,884,027.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

Capital Assets

Real estate assets, including improvements, are generally stated at cost. Furnishings and equipment are stated at cost at date of acquisition or, in the case of gifts, at acquisition value at date of donation. In accordance with the Board of Trustees' capitalization policy, all land is capitalized, regardless of value. Vehicles, equipment, computer software for internal use, and works of art and historical treasures with a unit cost of $5,000 or more are capitalized. Building, leasehold, and infrastructure improvements with a unit cost of $50,000 or more are capitalized. University capital assets, with the exception of land and construction in progress are depreciated on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives, which range from 5 to 50 years. The costs of normal maintenance and repairs that do not add to the value of the asset or materially extend assets lives are not capitalized.

Compensated Absences

University employees are granted vacation and sick leave in varying amounts. In the event of termination, an employee is paid for those accumulated vacation and sick days allowable in accordance with the applicable union contract or, in the case of non-union personnel, according to State or University policy.

Amounts of vested and accumulated vacation and sick leave are reported as accrued compensation and benefits. Amounts are determined based upon the compensation rates in effect as of the statement of net position date.

Pensions

For purposes of measuring the net pension liability, deferred outflows of resources and deferred inflows of resources related to pensions, and pension expense, information about the fiduciary net position of the Employees' Retirement System ("ERS") and the additions to/deductions from ERS' fiduciary net position have been determined on the same basis as they are reported by ERS. For this purpose, benefit payments (including refunds of employee contributions) are recognized when due and payable in accordance with the benefit terms. Investments are reported at fair value.

Post-employment Benefits

For purposes of measuring the net post-employment benefits other than pension obligations ("OPEB") liability, deferred outflows of resources and deferred inflows of resources related to OPEB, and OPEB expense, information about the fiduciary net position of the State Employees' OPEB Cost-Sharing Plan ("SEP") and the Board of Education Cost-Sharing OPEB Plan ("BOEP") (collectively referred to as the "Plans") and additions to/deductions from the Plans' fiduciary net position have been determined on the same basis as they are reported by the Plans. For this purpose, the Plans recognize benefit payments when due and payable in accordance with the benefit terms. Investments are reported at fair value.

UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND

Health Insurance

The State offers various State paid health plans to each of its participating agencies. The premiums for these plans are divided among the agencies based upon the number of eligible employees. All employees share in healthcare costs. Employee contributions ranged from 15% to 25% of healthcare premiums for non-classified and classified staff. Part-time employee contributions are based on part-time salary. The costs are automatically deducted through the payroll system on a biweekly basis. The University pays the balance of the healthcare costs. Expenses incurred by the University for the 2022 healthcare premiums amounted to $42,930,660. Employee contributions for the 2022 fiscal year were $7,796,396.

Assessed Fringe Benefit Administrative Fund

In July 2000, the State established the Assessed Fringe Benefit Administrative Fund. This fund is used to make all payments relating to workers' compensation charges, unemployment compensation payments, and payments to employees for unused vacation and sick leave at the time of retirement or termination from State service. The State funds this account by assessing a charge based on biweekly payrolls of all State agencies. The weighted average fringe benefit assessment rates for 2022 were 4.52% for non-faculty and 3.67% for faculty. The assessed fringe benefit cost for the University was approximately $7,484,000 for fiscal 2022.

Student Deposits and Unearned Revenue

Student deposits and advance payments received for tuition and fees for the following academic year are recorded as unearned revenue in the current year and as earned revenue in the following year.

Student Fees

Student tuition, dining, residence, health, and other fees are presented net of scholarships and fellowships applied to students' accounts. Certain other scholarship amounts are paid directly to, or refunded to, the student and are generally reflected as expenses.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

Tax Status

The University is a component unit of the State of Rhode Island and is therefore generally exempt from income taxes under Section 115 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions about future events. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Management evaluates the estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors that management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Adjustments to estimates and assumptions are made as facts and circumstances require. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with certainty, actual results may differ from the estimates used in preparing the accompanying financial statements. Significant estimates and assumptions are required as part of estimating an allowance for doubtful accounts, depreciation, compensated absences, and determining the net pension liability and the net OPEB liability.

Risk Management

The University is exposed to various risks of loss related to general liability, property and casualty, workers' compensation, unemployment, and employee health insurance claims.

The University is insured for general liability with policy limits of $1 million per claim and $2 million in the aggregate with a $500,000 deductible and Excess Liability Coverage with limits of $20 million. Coverage under the General Liability Policy extends to faculty, staff, students, and volunteers acting within the scope of their duties on behalf of the University. Employed healthcare providers are covered under an institutional medical malpractice policy, including a separate policy covering physicians. This policy does not apply to actions relating to federal/civil rights, eminent domain, and breach of contract. Such claims are covered under the Educator's Legal Liability policy which provides $10 million of coverage to directors, officers and the Board of Trustees, and covers claims of discrimination, wrongful termination, and failure to grant tenure.

Crime coverage for University employees is carried with a limit of $10 million and a deductible of $150,000.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

Buildings and contents are insured against fire, theft, and natural disaster to the extent that losses exceed $200,000 per incident and do not exceed $200 million. A separate inland marine policy insures specifically listed property items such as computer equipment, valuable papers, fine arts, contractors' equipment, and miscellaneous property at various limits of insurance and deductibles. The University also maintains Hull, Property & Indemnity coverage on a specific schedule of watercraft. This policy has a limit of $15 million. The hull limits vary by vessel with various deductibles. A separate policy insures the University's 184-foot research vessel. The amount of settlements has not exceeded insurance coverage in the years ended June 30, 2020, 2021, or 2022.

All vehicles are owned by the State, which insures them for liability through an outside carrier. The policy is a loss retrospective program where premiums can be adjusted for claims incurred. Workers' compensation, unemployment, and employee health and life insurance claims are self-insured and managed by the State.

Adoption of New Accounting Standards:

In June 2017, GASB issued GASB Statement No. 87, Leases. This standard requires the recognition of certain lease assets and liabilities for leases that previously were classified as operating leases and as inflows of resources or outflows of resources recognized based on the payment provisions of the contract. It establishes a single model for lease accounting based on the foundational principle that leases are financings of the right to use an underlying asset. Under this standard, a lessee is required to recognize a lease liability and an intangible right-to-use lease asset, and a lessor is required to recognize a lease receivable and a deferred inflow of resources.

The University adopted the requirements of the guidance effective July 1, 2022. The implementation of GASB Statement No. 87 had no impact on beginning net position.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

Leases - Lessee

The University determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Leases are included in right-of-use assets and other current and noncurrent liabilities in the Statement of Net Position.

Right-of-use assets represent the University's control of the right to use an underlying asset for the lease term, as specified in the contract, in an exchange or exchange-like transaction. Right-of-use assets are recognized at the commencement date based on the initial measurement of the lease liability, plus any payments made to the lessor at or before the commencement of the lease term and certain direct costs. Right-of-use assets are amortized in a systematic and rational manner over the shorter of the lease term or the useful life of the underlying asset.

Lease liabilities represent the University's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Lease liabilities are recognized at the commencement date based on the present value of expected lease payments over the lease term, less any lease incentives. Interest expense is recognized ratably over the contract term.

The lease term may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the University will exercise that option.

The University has elected to recognize payments for short-term leases with a lease term of 12 months or less as expenses as incurred, and these leases are not included as lease liabilities or right-to-use lease assets on the Statement of Net Position.

The individual lease contracts do not provide information about the discount rate implicit in the lease. Therefore, the University has elected to use its incremental borrowing rate to calculate the present value of expected lease payments.

The University accounts for contracts containing both lease and non-lease components as separate contracts.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

Leases – Lessor

The University determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Leases are included in other current and noncurrent assets and deferred inflows of resources related to leases in the Statement of Net Position.

Lease receivables represent the University's claim to receive lease payments over the lease term, as specified in the contract, in an exchange or exchange-like transaction. Lease receivables are recognized at commencement date based on the present value of expected lease payments over the lease term, reduced by any provision for estimated uncollectible amounts. Interest revenue is recognized ratably over the contract term. Deferred inflows of resources related to leases are recognized at the commencement date based on the initial measurement of the lease receivable, plus any payments received from the lessee at or before the commencement of the lease term that relate to future periods, less any lease incentives paid to, or on behalf of, the lessee at or before the commencement of the lease term. The deferred inflows related to leases are recognized as lease revenue in a systematic and rational manner over the lease term.

The University has elected to recognize payments received for short-term leases with a lease term of 12 months or less as revenue as the payments are received. These leases are not included as lease receivables or deferred inflows of resources related to leases on the Statement of Net Position.

The individual lease contracts do not provide information about the discount rate implicit in the lease. Therefore, the University has elected to use their incremental borrowing rate to calculate the present value of expected lease payments.

Note 2 - Cash, Equivalents, and Investments

Cash and Equivalents

The University's policy is in accordance with Chapter 35-10.1 of the Rhode Island General Laws dealing with the Public Finance, which states that any depository institution holding public deposits shall insure or pledge eligible collateral equal to one hundred percent (100%) with any time deposit with maturities greater than sixty (60) days. If any depository institution does not meet its minimum capital standards as prescribed by its federal regulator, they shall insure or pledge eligible collateral equal to one hundred percent (100%) of all public deposits. None of the University's cash deposits were required to be collateralized by law since there are no time deposits that exceed 60 days.

The University does not have a policy for custodial credit risk associated with deposits. At June 30, 2022, the carrying amount of the University's cash deposits was $101,267,853, and the bank balance was $102,139,337. Deposits are exposed to custodial credit risk if they are not covered by depository insurance, and the deposits are:

- a) Uncollateralized,
- b) Collateralized with securities held by the pledging financial institution, or
- c) Collateralized with securities held by the pledging financial institution's trust department or agent but not in the depositor-government's name.

Of the bank balance, $91,218,250 was covered by federal depository insurance ("FDIC"), and $10,873,337 was collateralized with securities held by the pledging financial institution in the University's name as of June 30, 2022. The remaining amount, $47,750, was uninsured and uncollateralized. The insured balance reflects FDIC insurance and guarantee programs in effect during 2022.

At June 30, 2022, the University had investments (cash equivalents) consisting of $88,469,567 in the Ocean State Investment Pool Trust ("OSIP"), an investment pool established by the State General Treasurer. The University's investment accounted for 7.07% of the total investment in OSIP at June 30, 2022. Agencies, authorities, commissions, boards, municipalities, political subdivisions, and other public units of the State may invest in OSIP. OSIP has met the criteria outlined in GASB Statement No. 79 – Certain External Investment Pools and Pool Participants, to permit election to report its investments at amortized cost which approximates fair value. The OSIP is not rated and the weighted average maturity of investments held in the pool, by policy, is not to exceed 60 days. OSIP transacts with its participants at a stable net asset value ("NAV") per share. Investments reported at the NAV are not subject to the leveling categorization. There are no participant withdrawal limitations. OSIP issues a publicly available financial report that can be obtained by writing to the Office of the General Treasurer, Finance Department, 50 Service Avenue – 2nd Floor, Warwick, RI 02886.

Funds on Deposit with Bond Trustee

The deposit with bond trustee is invested in money market funds with First American Treasury Obligations Fund. These funds are uninsured but invest exclusively in short-term U.S. Treasury obligations, including repurchase agreements secured by U.S. Treasury obligations. As of June 30, 2022, the First American Treasury Obligations Fund had a rating of A+ by Standard and Poor's and A2 by Moody's.

Component Units

The Foundation and the Research Foundation's investments at June 30, 2022 are reported at fair market value and are composed of the following:

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

The bonds issued by the Rhode Island Health and Education Building Corporation (the "Corporation") are special limited obligations of the BOE acting on behalf of the University. The refunding and general and educational bonds are secured by all available revenues of the BOE derived from the University and State appropriations for the University. The auxiliary enterprise revenue bonds are secured by all auxiliary enterprise revenue of the University.

On November 14, 2008, the Corporation issued the University of Rhode Island Auxiliary Enterprise Revenue Issue Series 2008 B Bonds, par amount of $3,830,000 to pay expenses relating to the 2004 B swap termination. The refunding resulted in a difference between the reacquisition price and the net carrying amount of the old debt of $1,105,000. The University entered into the bond refunding with the goal to achieve cost savings primarily through the reduction of interest expense. There was an economic gain (difference between the present value of the old and new debt service payments) of approximately $2.6 million. Payment on this bond will be made September 2024.

On June 18, 2009, the Corporation issued the University of Rhode Island Auxiliary Enterprise Revenue Issue, Series 2009 B Bonds with a par amount of $18,205,000. The proceeds of the Series 2009 B Bonds were used to finance fire protection and life safety improvements.

On February 17, 2010, the Corporation issued the University of Rhode Island Educational and General Revenue Issue, Series 2010 A Bonds with a par amount of $13,725,000. The proceeds of the Series 2010 A Bonds were used to repave and reconstruct major parking facilities, internal roadways, and walkways across three of its four campuses.

On June 18, 2013, the Corporation issued the Higher Education Facility Revenue Bonds, University of Rhode Island Educational and General Revenue Refunding Issue, Series 2013 A with a par amount of $6,195,000. The proceeds of the Series 2013 A Bonds were used to refund all Higher Education Facility Revenue Bonds, University of Rhode Island, Series 1997, and to refund all University of Rhode Island Educational and General Revenue, Series 2002 bonds. The University entered into the bond refunding with the goal to achieve cost savings primarily through the reduction of interest expense.

Note 8 - Pension

Plan Description

Certain employees of the University participate in a cost-sharing, multiple-employer, defined benefit pension plan - the Employees' Retirement System plan - administered by the Employees' Retirement System of the State of Rhode Island (the "System"). Under a cost-sharing plan, pension obligations for employees of all employers are pooled and plan assets are available to pay the benefits of the employees of any participating employer providing pension benefits through the plan, regardless of the status of the employers' payment of its pension obligation to the plan. The plan provides retirement and disability benefits and death benefits to plan members and beneficiaries.

The System issues a publicly available financial report that includes financial statements and required supplementary information for the plans. The report may be obtained at <http://www.ersri.org>.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

Benefit Provisions

The level of benefits provided to participants is established by Chapter 36-10 of the General Laws, which is subject to amendment by the General Assembly. Member benefit provisions vary based on service credits accumulated at dates specified in various amendments to the General Laws outlining minimum retirement age, benefit accrual rates, and maximum benefit provisions. In general, members accumulate service credits for each year of service subject to maximum benefit accruals of 80% or 75%. For those hired after June 30, 2012, the benefit accrual rate is 1% per year with a maximum benefit accrual of 40%. Members eligible to retire at September 30, 2009 may retire with 10 years of service at age 60 or after 28 years of service at any age.

The retirement eligibility age increases proportionately for other members reflecting years of service and other factors until it aligns with the Social Security Normal Retirement Age, which applies to any member with less than 5 years of service as of July 1, 2012. Members are vested after 5 years of service.

The plan provides for survivors benefits for service-connected death and certain lump-sum death benefits. Joint and survivor benefit provision options are available to members.

Cost-of-living adjustments are provided but are currently suspended until the collective plans covering State employees and teachers reach a funded status of 80%. Until the plans reach an 80% funded status, interim cost-of-living adjustments are provided at four-year intervals.

The plan also provides nonservice-connected disability benefits after five years of service and service-connected disability benefits with no minimum service requirement.

Contributions

The funding policy, as set forth in the General Laws, Section 36-10-2, provides for actuarially determined periodic contributions to the plan. For fiscal 2022, University employees, with less than 20 years of service as of July 1, 2012, were required to contribute 3.75% of their annual covered salary. Employees with more than 20 years of service as of July 1, 2012 were required to contribute 11% of their annual covered salary. The University is required to contribute at an actuarially determined rate; the rate was 28.01% of annual covered payroll for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2022. The University contributed $10,586,937, $10,144,593, and $10,145,538 for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2022, 2021 and 2020, respectively, equal to 100% of the required contributions for each year.

Pension Liabilities, Pension Expense, and Deferred Outflows of Resources and Deferred Inflows of Resources related to Pensions

At June 30, 2022, the University reported a liability of $88,413,739 for its proportionate share of the net pension liability related to its participation in ERS. The net pension liability was measured as of June 30, 2021, the measurement date, and the total pension liability used to calculate the net pension liability was determined by an actuarial valuation as of June 30, 2020 rolled forward to the June 30, 2021 measurement date. The University's proportion of the net pension liability was based on its share of contributions to the ERS for fiscal year 2021 relative to the total contributions of all participating employers for that fiscal year. At the June 30, 2021 measurement date, the University's proportion was 4.97%, a decrease of 0.11% from the University's proportion of 5.08%, at the June 30, 2020 measurement date.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

For the year ended June 30, 2022, the University recognized pension expense of $2,535,425. At June 30, 2022, the University reported deferred outflows of resources and deferred inflows of resources related to pensions from the following sources:

Deferred Outflows of Resources

Changes in assumptions	$ 407,492
Difference between expected and actual experience	612,128
Contributions subsequent to measurement date	10,586,937
Total Deferred Outflows of Resources	$ 11,606,557

Deferred Inflows of Resources

Difference between expected and actual experience	$ 66,384

The actuarial assumptions used in the June 30, 2020 valuation rolled forward to June 30, 2021 and the calculation of the total pension liability at June 30, 2021 were consistent with the results of an actuarial experience investigation study performed as of June 30, 2019.

The long-term expected rate of return best-estimate on pension plan investments was determined by the actuary using a building-block method. The actuary started by calculating best-estimate future expected real rates of return (expected returns net of pension plan investment expense and inflation) for each major asset class, based on a

Discount Rate

The discount rate used to measure the total pension liability was 7.0 percent. The projection of cash flows used to determine the discount rate assumed that contributions from plan members will be made at the current contribution rate and that contributions from the employers will be made at statutorily required rates, actuarially determined. Based on those assumptions, the pension plan's fiduciary net position was projected to be available to make all projected future benefit payments of current plan members. Therefore, the long-term expected rate of return on pension plan investments was applied to all periods of projected benefit payments to determine the total pension liability.

As noted earlier, ERS issues a publicly available financial report that includes financial statements and required supplementary information for the plans. The report may be obtained at <http://www.ersri.org>. The report contains detailed information about the pension plan's fiduciary net position.

Note 9 - Other Post-Employment Benefits

Plan Description

Certain employees of the University participate in one of two OPEB plans: the State Employees' OPEB Cost-Sharing Plan ("SEP") and the Board of Education Cost-Sharing OPEB Plan ("BOEP") (collectively referred to as the "Plans"). The Plans are cost-sharing, multiple-employer, defined benefit OPEB plans included within the State Employees' and Electing Teachers OPEB System (the "OPEB System").

(a Component Unit of the State of Rhode Island)

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

Under a cost sharing plan, OPEB obligations for employees of all employers are pooled and plan assets are available to pay the benefits of the employees of any participating employer providing OPEB benefits through the plan, regardless of the status of the employers' payment of its OPEB obligation to the plan. The Plans provide health care benefits to plan members.

The OPEB System is administered by the OPEB Board and was authorized, created, and established under Chapter 36-12.1 of the RI General Laws. The OPEB Board was established under Chapter 36-12.1 as an independent board to hold and administer, in trust, the funds of the OPEB System. The four members of the OPEB Board are: the State Controller, the State Budget Officer, the State Personnel Administrator, and the General Treasurer, or their designees.

The OPEB System issues a separate publicly available financial report that includes financial statements and required supplementary information for each plan. The reports may be obtained at <http://www.oag.ri.gov/reports.html>.

Membership and Benefit Provisions

The Plans within the OPEB System generally provide healthcare coverage to pre-Medicare eligible retirees and health reimbursement account contributions or Medicare supplement coverage for members who are Medicare eligible. Members may purchase coverage for spouses and dependents. Dental and vision coverage may be purchased by these groups with no state subsidy.

Members of the OPEB System must meet the eligibility and services requirements set forth in the RI General Laws or other governing documents. RIGL Sections 16-17.1-1 and 2, 36-10-2, 36-12.1, 36-12-2.2 and 36-12-4 govern the provisions of the OPEB System, and they may be amended in the future by action of the General Assembly.

Contributions

SEP

The funding policy, as set forth in the General Laws and which may be amended at any time, provides for actuarially determined periodic contributions to the plans. The University is required to contribute at an actuarially determined rate; the rate was 5.28% of annual covered payroll for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2022. The University contributed $1,995,682, $2,038,323 and $2,567,074 for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2022, 2021 and 2020, respectively, equal to 100% of the required contributions for each year.

UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND

(a Component Unit of the State of Rhode Island)

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

Active employees do not make contributions to the plan. Retired member contributions consist of the required retiree share of coverage based on the time of retirement and years of service.

BOEP

The funding policy, as set forth in the General Laws and which may be amended at any time, provides for actuarially determined periodic contributions to the plans. The University is required to contribute at an actuarially determined rate; the rate was 3.50% of annual covered payroll for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2022. The University contributed $2,097,676, $1,731,739, and $2,398,482 for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2022, 2021 and 2020, respectively, equal to 100% of the required contributions for each year.

Active employees contribute 0.9% of payroll to the plan. Retired employees have varying co-pay percentages ranging from 0% to 50% based on age and years of service at retirement.

OPEB Liabilities, OPEB Expense, and Deferred Outflows of Resources and Deferred Inflows of Resources Related to OPEB

At June 30, 2022, the University reported liabilities of $11,524,846 and $2,614,987 for its proportionate share of the net OPEB liability related to its participation in the SEP and BOEP, respectively. The net OPEB liability was measured as of June 30, 2021, the measurement date, and the total OPEB liability used to calculate the net OPEB liability was determined for each plan by a separate actuarial valuation as of June 30, 2020, rolled forward to the June 30, 2021 measurement date.

The University's proportion of the net OPEB liability was based on its share of contributions to the Plans for fiscal year 2021 relative to the total contributions of all participating employers for that fiscal year. At the June 30, 2021 measurement date, the University's proportion was 4.97% and 43.94% for the SEP and the BOEP, respectively, a decrease of 0.12% and an increase of 0.18% for the SEP and the BOEP, respectively, from the prior year measurement date.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

For the year ended June 30, 2022, the University recognized an OPEB credit of $754,714 and $1,358,260 for the SEP and the BOEP, respectively. At June 30, 2022, the University reported deferred outflows of resources and deferred inflows of resources related to OPEB from the following sources:

	SEP	BOEP	Total
Deferred Outflows of Resources Related to OPEB
Changes in assumptions	$ 575,588	$ 741,101	$ 1,316,689

Total Deferred Inflows of Resources	$ 11,433,098	$ 15,271,227	$ 26,704,325

Contributions of $4,093,358 are reported as deferred outflows of resources related to OPEB expense resulting from the University's contributions in fiscal year 2022 subsequent to the measurement date and will be recognized as a reduction of the net OPEB liability in the subsequent period.

Actuarial Methods and Assumptions

The total OPEB liability was determined using the following significant actuarial methods and assumptions:

Actuarial cost method	Early Age Normal - the Individual Entry Age Actuarial Cost Methodology is Used
Amortization method	Level Percent of Payroll - Closed
Inflation	2.75%
Salary increases	3.25% to 6.25%
Investment rate of return	5.00%
Health Care Cost Trend Rate	7.5% in fiscal 2021 decreasing annually to 3.5% in fiscal year 2033 and later

UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND

Mortality rates for male plan members were based on PUB-10 Median Table for Generally Healthy Retiree Males, loaded by 115%, projected with Scale Ultimate MP16. Mortality rates for female plan members were based on PUB-10 Median Table for Generally Healthy Retiree Females, loaded by 111%, projected with Scale Ultimate MP16.

The long-term expected rate of return best-estimate on the Plans' investments was determined by the actuary using a building-block method. The actuary started by calculating best-estimate future expected real rates of return (expected returns net of OPEB plan investment expense and inflation) for each major asset class, based on a collective summary of capital market expectations from 39 nationally recognized investment consulting firms.

The June 30, 2021 expected arithmetic returns over the long-term (20 years) by asset class are summarized in the following table for the Plans:

Asset Class	Target Asset Allocation	Long-Term Expected Arithmetic Real Rate of Return
Domestic Equity	65%	5.72%
Fixed Income	35%	1.73%

These return assumptions are then weighted by the target asset allocation percentage, factoring in correlation effects, to develop the overall long-term expected rate of return best-estimate on an arithmetic basis.

Discount Rate

The discount rate used to measure the total OPEB liability for the Plans was 5.0%. The projection of cash flows used to determine the discount rate assumed that contributions from plan members, if any, will be made at the current contribution rate and that contributions from the employers will be made at statutorily required rates, actuarially determined. Based on those assumptions, the Plan's fiduciary net position was projected to be available to make all projected future benefit payments of current plan members. Therefore, the long-term expected rate of return on the Plans' investments was applied to all periods of projected benefit payments to determine the total OPEB liability.

State of Rhode Island Employees Retirement System ("ERS") Defined Contribution

Plan Description

Certain employees participating in the defined benefit plan (those with less than 20 years of service as of July 1, 2012), as described in Note 8, also participate in a defined contribution plan of the Employees' Retirement System as authorized by General Law Chapter 36-10.3. The defined contribution plan was established under IRS section 401(a) and is administered by TIAA-CREF. The Retirement Board is the plan administrator and plan trustee. The employees may choose among various investment options available to plan participants. The State Investment Commission is responsible for implementing the investment policy of the plan and selecting the investment options available to members.

Contributions

Certain employees (those with less than 20 years of service as of July 1, 2012) contribute 5% of their annual covered salary and employers contribute at the following percentages of annual covered salary for these employees based on their years of service as of July 1, 2012:

Years of Service As of 7/1/2012	Employer Contribution Rate
15 - 20 Years	1.50%
10 - 15 Years	1.25%
0 - 10 Years	1.00%

Employee contributions are immediately vested while employer contributions are vested after three years of contributory service. Contributions required under the plan by both the employee and employer are established by the Rhode Island General Laws, which are subject to amendment by the General Assembly.

The University contributed and recognized as pension expense $362,178 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2022, equal to 100% of the required contributions for that year.

Plan Vesting and Contribution Forfeiture Provisions

The total amount contributed by the member, including associated investment gains and losses, shall immediately vest in the member's account and is non-forfeitable. The total amount contributed by the employer, including associated investment gains and losses, vests with the member and is non-forfeitable upon completion of three (3) years of contributory service. Non-vested employer contributions are forfeited upon termination of employment. Such forfeitures can be used by employers to offset future remittances to the plan.

Retirement Benefits

Benefits may be paid to a member after severance from employment, death, plan termination, or upon a deemed severance from employment for participants performing qualified military service. At a minimum, retirement benefits must begin no later than April 1 of the calendar year following the year in which the member attains age 70½ or terminates employment, if later.

The ERS issues a publicly available financial report that includes financial statements and required supplementary information for plans administered by the system. The report may be obtained at <http://ersri.org>.

Rhode Island Board of Education Alternate Retirement Plan

Plan Description

Certain employees of the University (principally faculty and administrative personnel) are covered by individual annuity contracts under a defined contribution retirement plan, Alternate Retirement Plan, established by the BOE, which is also responsible for amending it. Eligible employees who have reached the age of 30 and who have two (2) years of service are required to participate in either the Teachers' Insurance and Annuity Association ("TIAA"), the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company or the Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company retirement plan. The BOE establishes and amends contribution rates. Eligible employees must contribute at least 5% of their gross biweekly earnings. These contributions may be made on a pre-tax basis.

Funding Policy

The University contributes 9% of the employee's gross biweekly earnings. Total expenditures by the University for such 403(b) annuity contracts amounted to $13,398,760 during 2022. The employee contribution amounted to $7,443,756, during 2022.

Note 11 - Restricted Net Position

The University is the recipient of funds that are subject to various external constraints upon their use, either as to purpose or time. These funds are composed of the following at June 30, 2022:

Restricted – expendable:
Student loans	$ 3,456,258
Capital programs	3,750
	$ 3,460,008

Note 12 - Contingencies

Environmental Remediation

Hazardous waste found at a former drum storage site on property owned by the University polluted the ground and water in the area. The University entered into a “Consent Decree” agreement with the United States District Court on behalf of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (the “EPA”), the U.S. Justice Department, and the Rhode Island Department of Environmental Management (the “RIDEM”) on July 2, 2008 with regards to the West Kingston Town Dump/URI Disposal Area Superfund Site (the “Site”). A cap was placed to cover the Site and parties are now monitoring the ground water over an extended period of time through a system of monitoring wells. The University shares fiscal responsibility with the towns of South Kingstown and Narragansett. The University has accrued a liability of $803,319 relating to the remediation project, operation and maintenance costs, and site reviews. The related costs for the year ended June 30, 2022 were $287,402.

Other

Two purported class action lawsuits were filed against the University in 2020 alleging that the University breached its contracts with its students after the 2020 spring semester transitioned to distance learning. Management vigorously disputes the plaintiffs’ claims, but cannot provide a reasonable estimate of the total costs to the University associated with the two now-consolidated suits at this time.

For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

In addition to the noted above, various lawsuits are pending or threatened against the University that arose from the ordinary course of operations. In the opinion of management, no other litigation is now pending, or threatened, that has a probability of materially affecting the University's financial position.

The University receives significant financial assistance from federal and State agencies in the form of grants. Expenditures of funds under these programs require compliance with the grant agreements and are subject to audit. Any disallowed expenditures resulting from such audits become a liability of the University. In the opinion of management, such adjustments, if any, are not expected to materially affect the financial condition of the University.

Note 13 - Operating Expenses

The University's operating expenses, as presented on a natural classification basis, are as follows for the year ended June 30, 2022:

Compensation and benefits	$ 339,371,681
Supplies and services	173,870,092
Depreciation	46,364,101
Scholarships and fellowships	58,093,436
	$ 617,699,310

Note 14 - State Appropriation

Direct Appropriations

Pursuant to the Rhode Island General Law Section 16-59-9, the legislative-enacted budget reflects the budget passed by the General Assembly and signed by the Governor as well as any subsequent re-appropriations. The Board reviews and approves the unrestricted and restricted budgets and makes recommendations to the Governor and General Assembly for revisions to the current year's budget and the ensuing year's budget for the entities it oversees. As part of the University's annual budget process for unrestricted and restricted funds, the Board allocates specific amounts in the budget, which are allocated for the following categories: (1) salaries and wages; (2) operating expenditures; and (3) outlays for personnel costs, utilities, repairs, capital and student aid, as well as the overall budget allocation.

State Capital Plan Funds

The Rhode Island Capital Plan Fund (“RICAP”) was modeled on a financial technique originating in the State of Delaware. In fiscal year 2022, the State reserved 3% of its general revenues to fund a Budget Reserve and Cash Stabilization Fund. Once the fund reaches a maximum threshold (5% of fiscal year financial resources), the balance is transferred to RICAP. RICAP is used for capital expenditures. The technique is a “pay-as-you-go” process that avoids increasing the state’s debt burden. Higher education has received allocations through this program since fiscal year 1995.

The University’s State Capital Plan Allocations are composed of the following for the year ended June 30, 2022:

Fine Arts Center	$ 1,086,973
Asset Protection	9,922,069
	$ 11,009,042

State Contributed Capital

In November 2018, the Rhode Island voters approved the issuance of $70 million General Obligations Bonds for higher education facilities. The bond provides $45 million for the new Ocean Technology building and an infrastructure upgrade to the Pier. The bond also provided $25 million to Rhode Island College for enhancements to Horace Mann Hall. During fiscal year 2022, the University spent $6.3 million.

In March 2021, the Rhode Island voters approved the issuance of $57.3 million General Obligations Bonds for higher education facilities. The bond provides funding for the continuing upgrades of the Fine Arts Center. During fiscal year 2022, the University spent $1.0 million.

The expenditures funded from the proceeds of the above-mentioned general obligation bonds and capitalized as fixed assets during fiscal year 2022 totaled $7.3 million.

Note 15 - Related Parties

The University of Rhode Island Student Senate (the "Student Senate") is a legally separate tax-exempt entity associated with the University.

The Student Senate accounts for various student organizations and receives the student activity fees collected by the University. The Student Senate also operates the Memorial Union Board which generates revenue from its own activities including Ram Tours and the 193 Degrees Coffee House. The University transferred $1,747,806 to the Student Senate during the 2022 fiscal year representing student fees collected on the Student Senate's behalf. At June 30, 2022, $29,581 was due from the Student Senate and no amounts were due to the Student Senate. Revenues of the Student Senate for fiscal year 2022 were $2,431,997, and expenses totaled $2,355,397. Net position of the Student Senate at June 30, 2022 totaled $4,843,417.

Note 16 - Joint Venture

Municipal joint ventures pool resources to share the costs, risks, and rewards of providing services to their participants, the general public, or others. The University, in coordination with the Towns of South Kingstown and Narragansett, shares in the maintenance costs of the regional wastewater system, which was constructed during the late 1970s. For the Year Ended June 30, 2022

In addition to capital costs, the University is responsible for its proportionate share of the total operating costs of the regional wastewater system. Its share of the operating costs is in proportion to its share of the total flow into the common facilities as determined by metering devices and a predetermined percentage of operating costs of certain other facilities. The University's share of operating costs amounted to $478,216 in 2022. Financial information may be obtained at the Town of South Kingstown, 180 High Street, Wakefield, Rhode Island 02879.

Note 17 - Pass-Through Loans

The University distributed $77,409,143 during fiscal 2022, for student loans through the U.S. Department of Education federal direct lending program. These distributions and related funding sources are not included as expenses and revenues or as cash disbursements and cash receipts in the accompanying financial statements.

Pension Schedules

Note 1 - Factors Affecting Trends for Amounts Related to the Net Pension Liability

Measurement Date - June 30, 2021

There were no changes in actuarial methods or assumptions reflected in the calculation of the net pension liability as of the June 30, 2021 measurement dates compared to the June 30, 2020 measurement date.

Measurement Date - June 30, 2020

As part of the 2020 Actuarial Experience Study for the six-year period ending June 30, 2020 as approved by the System Board on May 22, 2020, certain assumptions were modified and reflected in the determination of net pension liability (asset) at the June 30, 2020 measurement date. The following summarizes the more significant changes in assumptions:

- Updated the underlying mortality tables from the RP-2014 set of tables to the public sector-based PUB (10) tables.
- Increased slightly the probabilities of turnover.
- Decreased slightly the probabilities of retirement.
- Modified slightly the probabilities of disability, including adding material incidence of disability for members in the age ranges that historically have been eligible to retire but under prospective provisions are not.

Measurement Date - June 30, 2019

There were no changes in actuarial methods or assumptions or benefits reflected in the calculation of the net pension liability as of the June 30, 2020, 2019 and 2018 measurement dates compared to the June 30, 2019, 2018 and 2017 measurement dates. Benefits were also unchanged between these measurement dates.

Measurement Date - June 30, 2018

There were no changes in benefits reflected in the calculation of net pension liability as of the June 30, 2018 measurement date compared to the June 30, 2017 measurement date. Benefits were also unchanged between these measurement dates.

Measurement Date - June 30, 2017

There were no changes in actuarial methods or assumptions or benefits reflected in the calculation of the net pension liability as of the June 30, 2017 measurement date compared to the June 30, 2016 measurement date. Benefits were also unchanged between these measurement dates.

Pension Schedules

Measurement Date - June 30, 2016

There were no changes in actuarial methods or assumptions or benefits reflected in the calculation of the net pension liability as of the June 30, 2016 measurement date compared to the June 30, 2015 measurement date. Benefits were also unchanged between these measurement dates.

Measurement Date - June 30, 2015

There were no changes in actuarial methods or assumptions reflected in the calculation of the net pension liability as of the June 30, 2015 measurement date compared to the June 30, 2014 measurement date.

Benefit changes, which resulted from the settlement of the pension litigation and the subsequent enactment of those settlement provisions by the General Assembly, are reflected in the calculation of the net pension liability at the June 30, 2015 measurement date. Significant benefit changes are summarized below:

- Employees with more than 20 years of service at July 1, 2012 will increase their employee contribution rates to 11% for State employees and participate solely in the defined benefit plan effective July 1, 2015 – service credit accruals will increase from 1% to 2% per year.
- Members are eligible to retire upon the attainment of: age 65 with 30 years of service, 64 with 31 years of service, 63 with 32 years of service, or 62 with 33 years of service. Members may retire earlier if their RI Retirement Security Act date is earlier or are eligible under a transition rule.
- The COLA formula was adjusted to 50% of the COLA and is calculated by taking the previous 5-year average investment return, less the discount rate (5 year return – 7.5%, with a max of 4%) and 50% calculated using the previous year's CPI-U (max of 3%) for a total max COLA of 3.5%. The COLA is calculated on the first $25,855, effective, 01/01/2016, and indexed as of that date as well.
- Other changes included providing interim cost-of-living increases at four rather than five-year intervals, providing a one-time cost-of-living adjustment of 2% (applied to first $25,000), two $500 stipends, and minor adjustments.

Notes to the OPEB Required Supplementary Information (Unaudited)

OPEB Schedules

Note 1 - Factors Affecting Trends for Amounts Related to the Net OPEB Liability

The actuarial methods and assumptions used to calculate the net OPEB liability of the participating employers are described in Note 9 to the financial statements. The following information is presented about factors that significantly affect trends in the amounts reported between years.

Measurement Date – June 30, 2021

Assumption changes included updated rates of mortality, retirement, withdrawal, disability and salary increases consistent with the Employees' Retirement System of Rhode Island, as applicable.

Measurement Date – June 30, 2020

The "Cadillac tax", which was a tax provision from the federal Affordable Care Act (ACA), was repealed in December 2019. As a result, liability amounts previously included for the "Cadillac tax" within the development of the total OPEB liability has been removed as of the June 30, 2020 measurement date.

Measurement Date - June 30, 2019

The June 30, 2018 actuarial valuation rolled forward to the June 30, 2019 measurement date reflected a change in excise tax load on pre-65 liabilities from 11.0% to 9.5%.

Measurement Date - June 30, 2018

There were no changes in actuarial methods and assumptions reflected in the calculation of the net OPEB liability as of June 30, 2018 measurement date compared to the June 30, 2017 measurement date.

Measurement Date - June 30, 2017

Certain actuarial assumptions for the State Employees' OPEB Cost-Sharing Plan ("SEP") and the Board of Education Cost-Sharing OPEB Plan ("BOEP") (collectively referred to as the "Plans") were updated to match the assumptions used for State Employees in the pension valuation for the Employees' Retirement System of Rhode Island ("ERSRI") and the results of an actuarial experience investigation performed for ERSRI at June 30, 2016. Changes were made to the following assumptions:

- Merit and longevity portion of the salary increase assumption
- Rates of separation from active membership
- Rates of retirement

UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND
(a Component Unit of the State of Rhode Island)

Notes to the OPEB Required Supplementary Information (Unaudited)

OPEB Schedules

- Rates of disability
- The rate of wage inflation
- The mortality assumption
- The trend assumption
- Aging factors and health and inflation trends

The excise tax load on pre-65 liabilities was changed from 13.8% to 11.0%. The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act includes an excise tax on high cost health plans beginning in 2022. The excise tax is 40% of costs above a threshold. The actual actuarial assumptions used in the most recent valuations assume that the Plans will be subject to the excise tax in 2022.

Note 2 - Actuarially Determined Contributions

The annual required contributions for fiscal year 2022 were determined based on the June 30, 2020 valuation of the Plans.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS
BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH *GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

Board of Trustees
University of Rhode Island
Kingston, Rhode Island

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of the business type activities and the aggregate discretely presented component units of University of Rhode Island (the University), as of and for the year ended June 30, 2022, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the University's basic financial statements and have issued our report thereon dated October 21, 2022. Our report includes a reference to other auditors who audited the financial statements of the University of Rhode Island Foundation & Alumni Engagement and University of Rhode Island Research Foundation, as described in our report on the University's financial statements. This report does not include the results of the other auditors' testing of internal control over financial reporting or compliance and other matters that are reported on separately by those auditors.

Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the University's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinions on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified.

Report on Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the University's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the financial statements. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of This Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the entity's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.
