
Institution Affiliation:

Title of Project:

Project Lead: Name, description of your professional background, and description of your role in the development and commercialization of the product. (75 word limit)

Other personnel: Are there other members of the team? Describe their background and their role in the development and commercialization of the product. (150 word limit)

Problem Statement: What problem is this research is solving (i.e. what is the unmet need)? (100 word limit)

Primary Indication: What is the initial patient subpopulation this technology is targeting, and what is the prevalence and incidence in the target region(s)? (100 word limit)

Project Description: What have you developed to address the problem statement (i.e. new system, software, drug, device, etc.)? (50 word limit)

Critical Evidence: What is the critical evidence that your technology solves this problem better than the current standard of care? (50 word limit)

Competition: What is the competition in this market – both currently, and in pipeline development? How is your product differentiated from this competition? (150 word limit)

Stage of Development: Describe the development stage of your technology (e.g. discovery stage, in vitro proof of concept, in vivo proof of concept, etc.) (50 word limit)

Development Plan: Describe your short-term and long-term development and funding plan (100 word limit)

Intellectual Property: Describe the status of your intellectual property. (100 word limit)

Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI): Please describe your/your company's EDI efforts to date as well as future plans and path to achieve them. (50 word limit)

A non-confidential Executive Summary and/or short pitch deck may be appended and is welcomed.

RI-INBRE will nominate up to three proposals to the DRIVEN Hub.

Send your proposal to Laura Bellavia, Business Manager, RI-INBRE (lbellavia@uri.edu) or Bongsup Cho (Program Director, RI-INBRE) bcho@uri.edu by July 1st.