

Materials:

Ball from the mentor closet with questions on it.

Objective:

Allows students to get to know each other.

Instructions:

Have students stand in a circle. Begin by introducing yourself and answering one of the questions on the question ball. Toss the ball to a student. When they catch the ball, they should introduce themselves and whichever question their right thumb lands on they should answer. They toss the ball to another student. This continues until everyone has received the ball once or twice.
