

Faculty Mentoring Workshop Evaluation

October 12, 2007

On a scale from 1 to 10, with 10 being the highest rating, how would you rate this workshop?

- Average score: 9 (based on 9 responses)

What suggestions do you have for improving this workshop?

- Perhaps a "how to deal with" conversation – in relationship to how to deal w/ certain scenarios in a mentor-mentee relationship. Maybe explore the same scenario from different viewpoints or review sticky situations
- Having some recent mentees
- Involve more people
- Make it longer. This session was great, but seemed rushed and didn't provide enough time for discussion
- Just figure out a way to get more new mentors present at events
- Give examples of potential timetables one could use with a mentee
- Could have used it earlier

Will this workshop improve your mentoring relationship? How so?

- Yes, it will help guide me in the development of our own mentoring program
- Yes, I will be more proactive
- This will truly help in developing a program within our department.
- The worksheet has sparked thought on what I'm not doing.
- Yes. I got lots of new ideas about how to help my mentee.
- Yes, remind me of all possible aspects.
- Yes, emphasized the importance of taking the time to check in with the mentee and the importance of connecting my mentee to others
- Yes, a number of concrete ideas
- Encouragement to be more active in reaching out

What did you find most useful or worthwhile about this workshop?

- Panel discussion was interesting, particularly hearing different viewpoints
- Hearing other mentors' experience
- Very good presentations, great insights from some real pros.
- Panel the diversity of viewpoints
- Meeting others who are mentors and finding out what they do in their department.
- Information about broad range of mentoring activities, diverse and differing aspects from different colleges
- Advice, examples
- the panel discussion and small group discussion
- Panel – examples given, differences in style
- Workshop as a whole was so well organized, thank you!

On a scale from 1 to 10, with 10 being the highest rating, how would you rate the knowledge, preparedness, and presentation by the facilitators?

- Average score: 9.5

Other comments

- Really well done, very useful
- Please continue to share this more widely