Title:	RIGHTS TO REQUEST PRIVACY PROTECTION FOR PHI	Purpose & Background	See Memo Entitled "HIPAA at URI: Introduction to HIPAA and an Overview of HIPAA Implementation at URI" available online at the URI HIPAA website
Originator (Responsible Department/ Unit):	URI HIPAA Compliance Oversight Committee	Effective Date:	05/22/2018
Applies to:	All URI Departments and Units Designated as HIPAA "Covered Components" and "Business Associate Components"	Revised Date(s):

POLICY:

I. Right of Individual to Request Restriction of Uses and Disclosures

- A. A Covered Component must permit an individual to request that the Covered Component restrict uses or disclosures of PHI for treatment, payment or health care operations, and disclosures for involvement in the individual's care and notification purposes.
- B. A Covered Component is not required to agree to a restriction, unless:
 - 1. Except as otherwise required by law, the disclosure is to a health plan for purposes of carrying out payment or health care operations (and is not for purposes of carrying out treatment); and
 - 2. The PHI pertains solely to a healthcare item or service for which the health care provider involved has been paid out of pocket in full.
- C. A Covered Component that agrees to a restriction may not use or disclose PHI in violation of the restriction except that, where the restricted PHI is needed for emergency treatment, the Covered Component may use or disclose such PHI to a healthcare provider to provide such treatment to the individual. If the restricted PHI is disclosed for emergency treatment, the Covered Component must request that the healthcare provider not further use or disclose the information.
- D. A restriction agreed to is not effective to prevent uses or disclosures permitted or required to the Secretary of DHHS for compliance, for facility directories or for which authorization or an opportunity to agree or object is not required.

II. Terminating a Restriction

A Covered Component may terminate its agreement to a restriction if:

- A. The individual agrees to or requests the termination in writing;

- B. The individual orally agrees to the termination and the oral agreement is documented; or
- C. The Covered Component informs the individual it is terminating its agreement to the restriction, except that such termination is only effective with regard to PHI created or received after it has so informed the individual and is not effective for a restriction under I(B) above.

III. Documentation of a Restriction

A Covered Component that agrees to a restriction must document that restriction.
