 Certification of Elected Municipal Service

INSTRUCTIONS:

This form is used to verify service as a municipal employee and/or elected municipal official in order to determine a current state employee's eligibility for additional vacation credit pursuant to Rhode Island General Law (RIGL) § 36-6-18 entitled "Additional Vacation Time for Career State Employees".

The above referenced statute applies to current State employees who were either hired or rehired after January 1, 2000, and who were previously employed by a municipality or who served in an elected municipal office.

When the combined total of the employee's state service time and municipal service time is twenty (20) year or more, the employee shall receive five (5) additional days each year, added to their vacation accrual which is based upon length of State service, up to a maximum total accrual of twenty-eight (28) vacation days a year.

State service time and municipal service time is combined only in this instance (i.e. in order to determine eligibility for five (5) additional vacation days.) State service time and municipal service time is NOT combined for the computation of compensation or any other leave accrual.

In order to verify prior municipal employment or service, a current State employee may forward this form to the appropriate municipal personnel officer. The State employee is responsible for tracking this form during the process.

The municipal personnel officer shall return the completed form to the State of RI Office of Personnel Administration at the above address. The Office of Personnel Administration (OPA) will notify the employee and the Appointing Authority (designee), of the decision which is made based upon the information provided on this form by the municipality.
