Review instructions, then begin to add your project documents (attachments and document wizards) for submission purposes.

The screenshot shows the IRBNet Designer interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation links. The main area displays the details for a project package [48797] titled 'Prevalence and outcomes of Pulmonary Contusions Following Blunt Trauma'. It shows the package status as '48797-1 Work in progress (Not submitted)' and provides options to add a description or notes. Below this, 'Step 1' instructs the user to download blank forms and templates. It includes a 'Select a Library' dropdown menu (currently set to 'Baystate Health Sponsored Programs Administration (SPA), Springfield, MA') and a 'Select a Document' dropdown menu (currently set to 'Ancillary Services Worksheet') with a 'Download' button. Specify the access that you wish to grant to each user at Metropolitan University. You should grant each user only the minimum level of access necessary to perform their work on this project.

- Signature Only (Read): Users whose only role is to sign off on project documentation should be granted "Read" access. Users with Read access can view project documentation, communicate with the project team and add their signature. This would typically include advisors, department heads, and other individuals who are required to sign off on the project documentation prior to submission but do not otherwise have a day-to-day role on the project.
- Read: Users that are granted "Read" access can view project documentation, collaborate with other users and add their signature, but may not edit project documents or perform any other administrative functions.
- Write: Users that are granted "Write" access can view and edit project documents, collaborate with other users and add their signature, but may not grant access to other users, submit packages for review or perform any other administrative functions.
- Full: Users that are granted "Full" access can perform all functions without restriction. This includes editing project documents, sharing the project with other users, submitting document packages for review and deleting document packages. Only Project Owners with day-to-day responsibility for the project should be granted Full access. Users with Full access will receive automatic email copies of all project notifications and alerts that are sent to the Project Owners.
