

A3 – Humanities Full

Most represented in the General Education Program, the Humanities Student Learning Outcome (A3) provides students with the opportunity to engage with varied forms of human expression and its influence on humankind's understanding of itself and its place in the universe. With 92 courses offered at the 100, 200, and 300 level that,, students can apply concepts and topics related to humanities to identify and explore the human dimensions of issues and challenges in their field of study or focus.

