

Undergraduate students may declare a "minor" field of study. Requirements may be satisfied by:
 a) completion of 18 or more credits of any of the minors have been proposed by one or more departments and approved by the Curricular Affairs Committee, Faculty Senate, and the President; or b) completion of 18 or more credits within a curriculum other than the student's major; or c) completion of 18 or more credits of relative studies offered by more than one department and sponsored by a faculty member competent in the minor field of study. To declare a minor, a student must have approval of the department chairperson of the minor field of study (or faculty sponsor in option c of this paragraph), and the student's academic dean. A student's approved minor(s) will be listed in the student's academic record after graduation.

2. At least twelve of the eighteen credits required for the minor must be at the 200-level or above. A minimum average of 2.00 must be earned in the credits required for the minor.
 - At least half of the credits required for a minor must be earned at the University of Rhode Island.
 - Courses in general education may be used for the minor. Courses in the minor may not be taken under the pass-fail grading option.
 - Application for a minor must be filed in the academic dean's office no later than the beginning of the student's final semester or term, but after receiving the signature of the appropriate department chair.
6. Approval of a minor does not guarantee space in any course required for the minor.
