

Bill #03-04--24

The Four Hundred Twenty-First Report of the Curricular Affairs Committee Resubmitted with Statement on Transfer of 100 Level Writing Courses

At the March 25, 2004 meeting of the Faculty Senate, the following statement was attached to the Threee Hundred and Twenty-First Report of the Curricular Affairs Committee, which was confirmed and resubmitted to the President:

Students transferring from one program (or college) within or outside the University to another program (or college) within the University may apply 100-level English Communications writing (ECw) courses taken as part of the general education requirements in the original program (or college) to the English Communication writing (ECw) general education requirements in the program or college to which they transfer.

The Four Hundred and Twenty-First Report of the Curriculaar Affairs Committee